

UNDERSTANDING SOCIAL MEDIA

SECOND EDITION

LARISSA HJORTH
AND SAM HINTON

 SAGE

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC | Melbourne

Contents

List of figures	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Introduction	1
Key debates	3
Chapter summaries	7
Part 1 Histories and Contexts	11
2 Approaches to Social Media	13
Introduction	13
Foundational approaches	15
Networked and affective publics	19
Digital ethnography	22
Big Data and the computational turn	24
Bringing ethnography and small data to Big Data and the Quantified Self (QS)	30
Conclusion: The value of mixed methods approaches	31
3 Histories of Social Media	34
Introduction	34
Critical media histories	35
Media has always been social ... an approach to internet histories	36
Used or being used?	43
Social media as empowering	44
Social media as exploitation	46
Conclusion	51

Part 2	Economies and Applification	53
4	Datafication &amp; Algorithmic Cultures	55
	Introduction	55
	Ethnography and the algorithm	58
	Ambient and soft play	59
	Playful resistance	61
	Conclusion	69
5	Mobile Applification	71
	Introduction	71
	Mobile apps: A short history	74
	Rethinking surveillance in a period of self-tracking	77
	Performing the art of maps	79
	Grippy not slippy: A case study	84
	Conclusion	84
6	Geolocation &amp; Social Media	86
	Introduction	86
	Friendly surveillance and care-at-a-distance	87
	The intimate mundane and care-at-a-distance	88
	Friendly 'social surveillance'	90
	Careful apps: The commodification of care or care mobilized?	92
	Conclusion	95
Part 3	Cultures	97
7	Social Media Visualities	99
	Introduction	99
	New networked and emplaced visualities	101
	The non-shared image: Networked to emplaced visuality	104
	Conclusion: Non-disclosure and sharing	107
8	Mobile Media Art: The Art of the Social	109
	Introduction	109
	Mobile art or mobile media art?	110
	Mobile art: Beyond the locative	113
	Mobile arts and the social	117
	Critical mobile arts	123
	More than a like: Conclusions on mobile art	129

9	Museums &amp; New Visualities	131
	Introduction	131
	Setting the context	133
	Selfie contextualized: Embodied performativity of the present	137
	Visualizing engagement	140
	Conclusion	143
Part 4	Practices	145
10	Paralinguistics	147
	Introduction	147
	Paralinguistics in context	149
	Emojis , stamps and the politics of affective labour	150
	Tokyo, Japan	152
	Shanghai, China	155
	Conclusion: Emotions at a distance	159
11	Social Media &amp; Mixed Reality	161
	Introduction	161
	Pokémon GO	162
	Location-based mobile games: Transforming urban environments into playspaces	164
	Casual gaming in public: The mobilization of private space	166
	Conclusion	169
12	Social Media &amp; Death	171
	Introduction	171
	Death and digital media	173
	Loss, social media and affect	174
	The digital afterlife	177
	Conclusion	180
13	Conclusion	181
	References	186
	Index	214