

The Century of the
FLEMISH PRIMITIVES

Paul Vandenbroeck

Late Medieval Art in the Royal Museum of Fine Arts Antwerp

Contents

7	Foreword
9	An unusual collector
13	The 'Flemish Primitives': Flemish and primitive?
17	Before the great renewal: 'pre-Eyckian' painting
21	The founding generations, 1425-1465
31	The second half of the 15th century
39	Altarpieces
49	Refuge and safe haven
59	The salutary intercession of the saints
63	The white and imageless midpoint
65	Growing individualism, piety and the portrait
79	Outside the major centres
81	Secular art
85	Art in the female line
89	The second flowering of the late Middle Ages
93	Flemish artists in Europe
99	Religion as framework of thought
111	A sample of late medieval art
123	Highpoints of late medieval art from beyond the Low Countries
134	Further reading
136	List of artworks