

The Craft of Art

ORIGINALITY AND INDUSTRY
IN THE ITALIAN RENAISSANCE
AND BAROQUE WORKSHOP

Edited by Andrew Ladis and Carolyn Wood
William U. Eiland, General Editor

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESS

Athens & London

CONTENTS

Preface

vii

Introduction

ANDREW LADIS AND CAROLYN WOOD

1

The Artist's Hand

PAUL BAROLSKY

5

The Craftsman's Genius: Painters, Patrons, and Drawings in Trecento Siena

HAYDEN B.J. MAGINNIS

25

Sources and Resources: The Lost Sketchbooks of Giovanni di Paolo

ANDREW LADIS

48

Titian and the Idea of Originality in the Renaissance

BRUCE COLE

86

Instruction and Originality in Michelangelo's Drawings

W. E. WALLACE

113

vi Contents

The Earliest Collaborations of Pontormo and Bronzino: The Certosa, the Capponi Chapel, and the Dead Christ with the Virgin and Magdalen

ELIZABETH PILLIOD

134

Drawings as Means to an End: Preparatory Methods in the Carracci School

DIANE DE GRAZIA

165

De Rossi and Falda: A Successful Collaboration in the Print Industry of Seventeenth-Century Rome

FRANCESCA CONSAGRA

187

Volterrano and the Role of Imitatio in the Seventeenth-Century
Practice of Art in Florence

MALCOLM CAMPBELL

204

List of Contributors

235

Index

237