

An Everyday Modernism

Edited by Marc Treib

The Houses of William Wurster

with essays by

David Gebhard

Daniel Gregory

Greg Hise

Dorothee Imbert

Alan R. Michelson

Richard C. Peters and
Caitlin Lempres

Marc Treib

Gwendolyn Wright

San Francisco Museum of Modern Art

University of California Press • Berkeley • Los Angeles • London

Contents

Director's Foreword and Acknowledgments	6
John R. Lane
Introduction	8
Marc Treib
William Wilson Wurster: The Feeling of Function	12
Marc Treib
An Architectural Life	84
Richard C. Peters and Caitlin King Lempres
The Nature of Restraint:	98
Wurster and His Circle
Daniel Gregory
Of Gardens and Houses as Places to Live:	114
Thomas Church and William Wurster
Dorothee Imbert
Building Design as Social Art:	138
The Public Architecture of William Wurster, 1935–1950
Greg Hise
William Wurster and His California Contemporaries:	164
The Idea of Regionalism and Soft Modernism
David Gebhard
A Partnership:	184
Catherine Bauer and William Wurster
Gwendolyn Wright
Bernardi, Emmons – and Wurster:	204
Focus on the Younger Partners
Alan R. Michelson
William Wurster Chronology	226
Alan R. Michelson
William Wurster: Selected Writings	230
The Twentieth-Century Architect
The Outdoors in Residential Design
California Architecture for Living
Bibliography	238
Compiled by Marc Petr and Sabrina Owen
Illustration Credits	244
Index	246