

Andreas Grimmel • Susanne My Giang
Editors

Solidarity in the European Union

A Fundamental Value in Crisis

 Springer

Contents

1	Introduction: Solidarity Lost? The European Union and the Crisis of One of Its Core Values	1
	Andreas Grimmel and Susanne My Giang
Part I Solidarity as a Concept and Fundamental Value in the European Union
2	Applying the Idea of Solidarity to Europe	9
	Ulrich Steinvorth
3	Solidarity in the EU: A Critique of Solidarity and of the EU	21
	Bengt Beutler
4	Solidarity as a Legal Concept	37
	Markus Kotzur
5	European Solidarity and Its Limits: Insights from Current Political Challenges	47
	Michèle Knodt and Anne Tews
Part II The Crisis of Solidarity
6	Actual Patterns of Migration Flows: The Challenge of Migration and Asylum in Contemporary Europe	67
	Catherine Wihtol de Wenden
7	Solidarity in European Migration Policy: The Perspective of the Visegrád States	81
	Justyna Segeš Frelak
8	Structural Injustice: The Eurozone Crisis and the Duty of Solidarity	97
	Erik O. Eriksen

- 9 Disintegration from Within: Independence and Separatist Movements, the EU Response and the Role of Solidarity 119
Henri de Waele
- 10 The EU Falling Apart? Theoretical Discussions of Brexit, Grexit and Other Exit Scenarios 131
Tim Oliver
- 11 “Inconvenient Solidarities”: Extreme-Right Online Networks and the Construction of a Critical Frame Against Europe 145
Manuela Caiani and Elena Pavan
- 12 Solidarity in the European Union: Fundamental Value or “Empty Signifier” 161
Andreas Grimmel