

SUBJECTIVITY IN ASIAN CHILDREN'S LITERATURE AND FILM

Global Theories and Implications

EDITED BY JOHN STEPHENS

Contents

List of Figures	ix
Series Editor's Foreword	xi
Naming Conventions	xiii
Chapter 1 Introduction: The Politics of Identity: A Transcultural Perspective on Subjectivity in Writing for Children JOHN STEPHENS	1
Chapter 2 Metamorphosis: The Emergence of Glocal Subjectivities in the Blend of Global, Local, East, and West ANNA KATRINA GUTIERREZ	19
Chapter 3 The Muslima within American Children's Literature: Female Identity and Subjectivity in Novels about Pakistani-Muslim Characters SEEMI AZIZ	43
Chapter 4 Cooperation and Negotiation: Formation of Subjectivity in Japanese and Australian Picture Books MIYUKI HISAOKA	59
Chapter 5 Subjectivity and Culture Consciousness in Chinese Children's Literature LIFANG LI	79

Chapter 6	“How Can I Be the Protagonist of My Own Life?”: Intimations of Hope for Teen Subjectivities in Korean Fiction and Film SUNG-AE LEE	95
Chapter 7	Contingent Subjectivity and Masculinity in Japanese Film for Young People CHRISTIE BARBER	115
Chapter 8	Strong Is Beautiful: A Thai-Thai Happiness SALINEE ANTARASENA	135
Chapter 9	Subjectivity and Ethnicity in Vietnamese Folktales with Metamorphosed Heroes TRAN QUYNH NGOC BUI	151
Chapter 10	All Is Relative, Nothing Is Reliable: Inuyasha and Japanese Subjectivities MIO BRYCE	163
Chapter 11	Strategic Empowerment: A Study of Subjectivity in Contemporary Indian English Children’s Fiction SUCHISMITA BANERJEE	181
Chapter 12	Subjectivity without Identity: Huang Chunming’s Fiction in Postcolonial Vein SUH SHAN CHEN AND MING CHERNG DUH	197
Chapter 13	Scrivener’s Progeny: Writing the Subject ROBYN MCCALLUM	213
	Contributors	225
	Index	229