

Feminist Waves, Feminist Generations

Life Stories from the Academy

Hokulani K. Aikau
Karla A. Erickson
Jennifer L. Pierce, Editors

University of Minnesota Press | Minneapolis | London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Feminist Waves, Feminist Generations Hokulani K. Aikau, Karla A. Erickson, and Jennifer L. Pierce	1
1. Feminist Archaeology: What This All Means (After All These Years) Janet D. Spector	46
2. Poisoned Ivy: Lesbian and Gay Academics from the 1960s through the 1990s Toni McNaron	67
3. Women's History in the New Millennium: A Conversation across Three "Generations" Anne Firor Scott, Sara Evans, Susan Cahn, and Elizabeth Faue	87
4. Traveling from Feminism to Mainstream Sociology and Back: One Woman's Tale of Tenure and the Politics of Backlash Jennifer L. Pierce	109
5. Innovation Is Overtime: An Ethical Analysis of "Politically Committed" Academic Labor Lisa J. Disch and Jean M. O'Brien	140
6. Getting My Story Straight: Masculinity through a Feminist Lens Peter Hennen	168
7. Sissies at the Picnic: The Subjugated Knowledges of a Black Rural Queer Roderick A. Ferguson	188
8. I May Not Know My "Color," But I Do Know My Politics: "East"/"West" Feminist Encounters Miglena Todorova	197
9. Mixed Race and Third Wave Feminism Felicity Schaeffer-Grabiel	211

VI Contents

10. Between Wind and Water: Thinking about the Third Wave as Metaphor and Materiality	Hokulani K. Aikau	232
11. "I Thought She Was One of Us!" A Narrative Examination of Power and Exclusion in the Academy	Wendy Leo Moore	250
12. A New Wave, Shifting Ground: Women's Studies PhDs and the Feminist Academy, from the Perspective of 1998	Dawn Rae Davis	270
13. Negotiating Feminist Futures: Transgender Challenges and Contradictions of a PhD in Feminist Studies	Sam Bullington and Amanda Lock Swarr	290
14. On Taking Feminism for Granted: Reflections of a Third Generation Feminist	Karla A. Erickson	318
Contributors		349
Index		355