

Dominic Davies • Candida Rifkind
Editors

Documenting Trauma in Comics

Traumatic Pasts, Embodied Histories, and Graphic Reportage

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Documenting Trauma in Comics	1
	Dominic Davies
Section I	Documenting Trauma	27
2	Hierarchies of Pain: Trauma Tropes Today and Tomorrow	29
	Katalin Orbán
3	Emotional History and Legacies of War in Recent German Comics and Graphic Novels	49
	Alexandra Lloyd
4	The Past That Will Not Die: Trauma, Race, and Zombie Empire in Horror Comics of the 1950s	69
	Michael Goodrum
5	Exploring Trauma and Social Haunting Through Community Comics Creation	85
	Sarah McNicol
6	Comic: “Documenting Trauma”	103
	Nicola Streeten

Section II	Traumatic Pasts	109
7	Traumatic Moments: Retrospective ‘Seeing’ of Violation, Rupture, and Injury in Three Post-millennial Indian Graphic Narratives	111
	E. Dawson Varughese
8	This Side, That Side: Restoring Memory, Restorying Partition	131
	A. P. Payal and Rituparna Sengupta
9	Visual Detention: Reclaiming Human Rights Through Memory in Leila Abdelrazaq’s Baddawi	153
	Haya Saud Alfarhan
10	Comic: Crying in the Chapel	173
	Una
Section III	Embodied Histories	177
11	Folding, Cutting, Reassembling: Materializing Trauma and Memory in Comics	179
	Ian Hague
12	‘To Create Her World Anew’: Charlotte Salomon’s Graphic Life Narrative	199
	Emma Parker
13	Una’s Becoming Unbecoming, Visuality, and Sexual Trauma	221
	Ana Baeza Ruiz
14	Discourses of Trauma and Representation: Motherhood and Mother Tongue in Miriam Katin’s Graphic Memoirs	243
	Eszter Szép

15	Comic: First Person Third Bruce Mutard	263
	Section IV Graphic Reportage	275
16	Comics Telling Refugee Stories Nina Mickwitz	277
17	Migrant Detention Comics and the Aesthetic Technologies of Compassion Candida Rifkind	297
18	Comics as Memoir and Documentary: A Case Study of Sarah Glidden Johannes C. P. Schmid	317
19	Afterword Hillary Chute	335
	Index	339