

Pursuing History
Middle English Manuscripts
and Their Texts

Ralph Hanna III

Stanford University Press, Stanford, California, 1996

Contents

Introduction 1

PART I Manuscripts

- Chapter 1* Booklets in Medieval Manuscripts:
Further Considerations 21
- Chapter 2* The Origins and Production of Westminster
School MS. 3 35
- Chapter 3* Two Lollard Codices and Lollard Book Production 48

PART II Editions

- Chapter 4* Producing Manuscripts and Editions 63
- Chapter 5* On Stemmatics 83

PART III Canonizing Editors and Medieval Evidence: Troilus and The Canterbury Tales

- Chapter 6* Robert K. Root and the Text of the Troilus 97
- Chapter 7* The Manuscripts and Transmission of Chaucer's Troilus 115
- Chapter 8* The Chaucer Variorum 130

- Chapter 9* The Hengwrt Manuscript and the Canon of The Canterbury Tales 140

PART IV Historicizing Manuscript Diversity

- Chapter 10* Authorial Versions, Rolling Revision, Scribal Error? Or, the Truth About Truth 159
- Chapter 11* Presenting Chaucer as Author 174
- Chapter 12* MS. Bodley 851 and the Dissemination of Piers Plowman 195
- Chapter 13* On the Versions of Piers Plowman 203

PART V Annotation, Medieval and Modern

- Chapter 14* Compilatio and the Wife of Bath:
Latin Backgrounds, Ricardian Texts 247
- Chapter 15* The Practice of Annotation 258
- Chapter 16* Pilate's Voice / Shirley's Case 267

Notes 283

Further Reading 327

Works Cited 331

Index of Early Books Cited 347

General and Topical Index 351