

Contents

Acknowledgments	page viii
Notes on Transliteration and Texts	xiv
1 Christian Political Theology as Comparative Theology	1
2 Neither Conciliation nor Confrontation: A Comparative Approach to Shari'a and Islamic Jurisprudence	48
3 “That Hideous Schizophrenia”: A Genealogy of Muslim Critiques of Christian Theologies of the Law	94
4 The Difficulty with Distinctions: Justin Martyr, Thomas Aquinas, and Martin Luther on Law	139
5 Building a Christological Legal Foundation: A Comparative Political Theology after Karl Barth	199
6 The Witness of the Law in Comparative Perspective	253
Conclusion: Toward a Comparative Theo-Legal Discourse	324
Select Bibliography	330
Index	343