

Contents

Acknowledgements viii

Introduction: What are Exhibitions for? 1

SPREAD 1: The AHJ booklet – A practical tool to study exhibition visitors 25

1 Representational and Performative Knowledge 31

SPREAD 2: Mike – 'There is a connecting memory in my feet' 57

2 Photography, Exhibition Design and Atmosphere 63

SPREAD 3: Sue – 'Photography students have been very surprised to learn that what appears to be an actual window is in fact an illusion' 85

3 Similarities and Stereotypes 91

SPREAD 4: Jen – 'I was very interested in anime and manga' 125

4 To Learn or not to Learn? 131

SPREAD 5: Natasha – 'And I have been putting them in the dishwasher!' 159

SPREAD 6: Natalia – 'It is in our shower because it's very useful'; Molly – 'It is something I found and can't give away' 165

5 Photography, Performance and Play 171

SPREAD 7: Ali – 'I never found England a very interesting place' 195

Conclusion: Exhibitions as Technologies of the Imagination 201

Notes 211

References 217