

Piotr Koryś

Poland From Partitions to EU Accession

A Modern Economic History, 1772–2004

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

- 1 Introduction: From the “Little Divergence” to Successful EU Integration: Towards Economic History of Modern Poland 1
- 2 The View from Afar: The Polish Economy Between the Golden Age and the Partitions (Sixteenth to Eighteenth Centuries) 35
- 3 The Age of Enlightenment Reforms and Partitions of Poland: Economy and Politics in the Late Eighteenth Century (1772–1795) 43
- 4 Between the Consolidation from Above and the Fragmentation of the State: Partitions, Duchy of Warsaw and Polish Lands After the Congress of Vienna (1795–1830) 77
- 5 On the Peripheries of the Modern Western World: Delayed Social Reforms and Unfinished Industrial Revolution (1830–1870) 115

6	The Dawn of Modern Economic Growth: Period of Late Industrialization (1870–1914)	151
7	The Window of Opportunity: Polish Lands During the Great War (1914–1921)	195
8	A Moment of Independence: Reconstruction and Economic Development of the Second Republic of Poland (1918/21–1939)	207
9	Under the Nazi and Soviet Rule: Polish Lands During World War II (1939–1945)	255
10	Communist Modernization? Economic Development of Poland Under State Socialism (1945–1989)	265
11	In Pursuit of the Western World: Poland Between the Transition and the EU Accession (1989–2004)	321
12	Conclusion: Two Centuries of Catching-up to the West	347
	Annex	365
	Bibliography	371
	Index	373