

Dane Morrison, Editor

AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES

An Interdisciplinary Approach to Contemporary Issues

Foreword by Ron Welburn

PETER LANG

New York • Washington, D.C./Baltimore
Bern • Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Vienna • Paris

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Foreword	xi
Ron Welburn
Preface	xv
Dane Morrison
Publisher's Note	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix
IN THE WORLD	1
I. History, Language, Identity	3
1. "In Whose Hands Is the Telling of the Tale?"	5
Dane Morrison
2. The Native Languages of North America: Structure and Survival	27
Sally Midgette
3. Kill the Indian, Save the Child: Cultural Genocide and the Boarding School	47
Debra K. S. Barker
RECLAIMING POWER	69
II. Educational Strategies	71
4. American Indian Education	73
Wayne J. Stein
5. The Case for Native American Studies	93
Jon Reyhner
6. Why Native American Studies? A Canadian First Nations Perspective	111
William Asikinack
III. Economic Survival	119
7. Taking up the Challenge: Fundamental Principles of Economic Development in Indian Country	121
Miriam R. Jorgensen

8.	American Indians and Gambling: Economic and Social Impacts Wayne J. Stein	145
9.	Native American Industry: Basket Weaving among the Wabanaki Pauleena MacDougall	167
IV.	Spirit and Power	193
10.	The Catholic Missions to the Native Americans Ross Enochs	195
11.	Stolen Spirits: An Illustrative Case of Indigenous Survival Through Religious Freedom Gabrielle A. Tayac	217
12.	“The Supreme Law of the Land”: Sources of Conflict between Native Americans and the Constitutional Order Eric Mazur	233
	PERCEPTIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS	261
V.	Voices and Words	263
13.	Place, Vision, and Identity in Native American Literatures Robert M. Nelson	265
14.	Native American Imaginative Spaces Irene Moser	285
15.	Building on the Myth: Recovering Native American Culture in Louise Erdrich’s The Bingo Palace Tom Matchie	299
16.	“What Does It Tell Us That We Are So Easily Deceived?” Impostor Indians Laura Browder	313
VI.	Images and Icons	335
17.	Tomahawkin’ the Redskins: “Indian” Images in Sports and Commerce Jane Frazier	337
18.	Reframing the Hollywood Indian: A Feminist Re-reading of Powwow Highway and Thunderheart Ellen L. Arnold	347
19.	Broken Arrows: Images of Native Americans in the Popular Western Mary Alice Money	363

VII. "A Usable Indian": The Current Controversy in Museums	389
20. The Politics of Repatriation Dan L. Monroe	391
21. Museums and American Indians: Ambivalent Partners Karen Coody Cooper	403
Contributors	413
Index	417