

Contents

Acknowledgements and Permissions ix

Introduction 1

SONJAH STANLEY NIAAH

Part 1: Early Reflections

- 1 The Development of Jamaican Popular Music 9
GARTH WHITE
- 2 Slackness Hiding from Culture: Erotic Play in the Dancehall 29
CAROLYN COOPER
- 3 Murderation: The Question of Violence in the Sound System Dance 63
NORMAN C. STOLZOFF
- 4 Gun Talk and Girls' Talk: The DJ Clash 71
JOSEPH PEREIRA

Part 2: Negotiation, Urban Space and Experience

- 5 Post-Nationalist Geographies: Rasta, Ragga and Reinventing Africa 85
LOUIS CHUDE-SOKEI
- 6 An Archaeology of Dancehall: Garrison Life at Fort Rocky 96
ZACHARY J.M. BEIER
- 7 Sampling City: Kingston in the Social Imaginary of
Jamaican Popular Music 105
ANNA KASAFI PERKINS
- 8 Tommy Lee as "Uncle Demon": Contemporary Cultural
Hybridity in Jamaican Dancehall 122
ROBIN CLARKE

- 9 Dancehall Political Patronage and Gun Violence: Political Affiliations
and the Glorification of Gun Culture 139

DENNIS HOWARD

Part 3: Engagement, Spectacle and the Language of Performance

- 10 Video Light: Dancehall and the Aesthetics of Spectacular
Un-visibility in Jamaica 153

KRISTA THOMPSON

- 11 "Spar wid Me" and Other Stories of Civic Engagement in the Sound Clash Arena 173

JOSHUA CHAMBERLAIN

- 12 Death before Dishonour: Language and the Jamaican
Sound System Clash 187

AUDENE S. HENRY

Part 4: Sexual Politics and Aesthetics

- 13 Out and Bad: Toward a Queer Performance Hermeneutic in
Jamaican Dancehall 205

NADIA ELLIS

- 14 Fashion Ova Style: Dancehall's Masculine Duality 223

DONNA HOPE

- 15 Ghetto Girls/Urban Music: Jamaican Ragga Music and Female Performance 238

TRACEY SKELTON

- 16 "A Uman Wi Niem!" Sexual Desire and the Poetics of "Badness" in the Works of Lady Saw and Tanya Stephens 249

AGOSTINHO PINNOCK

Part 5: Sound System, Riddim and Practice

- 17 A Caribbean Taste of Technology: Creolization and the Ways of Making of the Dancehall Sound System 269

JULIAN HENRIQUES

- 18 The Riddim Method: Aesthetics, Practice and Ownership in
Jamaican Dancehall 283
PETER MANUEL AND WAYNE MARSHALL
- 19 “‘Sleng Teng’ Dominate Bad, Bad”: Understanding Jamaica’s
“Computerized” Riddim Craze 303
ERIN C. MacLEOD
- 20 Sleng Teng: Redefining Jamaica’s Digital Riddims 313
RAY HITCHINS

Part 6: Ritual, Celebration, Space

- 21 Ritual and Community in Dancehall Performance 327
SONJAH STANLEY NIAAH
- 22 Egúngún in Disguise: The Jamaican Nine Night Ceremony 342
LENA DELGADO DE TORRES
- 23 Representations of “Obeah” and “Bad-Mind” in Contemporary
Jamaican Dancehall 357
KATE LAWTON

Part 7: Adornment, Embodiment and Style

- 24 Fabricating Identities: Survival and the Imagination in Jamaican Dancehall Culture 381
BIBI BAKARE-YUSUF
- 25 Dancehall Bodies: Performing In/Securities 398
“H” PATTEN
- 26 Born in Chanel, Christen in Gucci: The Rhetoric of Brand Names
and Haute Couture in Jamaican Dancehall 406
ANDREA SHAW NEVINS

Part 8: The Dancehall Transnation

- 27 Music and Orality: Authenticity in Japanese Sound System Culture 423
MARVIN D. STERLING

- 28 Zimdancehall: Jamaican Music in a Transatlantic and African Perspective 435
ANDREA HOLLINGTON
- 29 Black Music, Popular Culture and Existential Capital: The Relationship between Appropriation and Originality 453
BRUNO BARBOZA MUNIZ
- 30 White Faces in Intimate Spaces: Jamaican Popular Music in Global Circulation 468
LARISA KINGSTON MANN

Part 9: Tribute to Bogle

- 31 "Bogle ah di Order fi di Day": Dance and Identity in Jamaican Dancehall 477
SONJAH STANLEY NIAAH
- Contributors 491