

Table of Contents

Preface	1
Introduction: American Sentimentalism from the Nineteenth Century to the Present JENNIFER A. WILLIAMSON	3
Doctor Jekyll and Mister Jim Crow: Medical Professionalism, Race and Postsentimentalism in The Marrow of Tradition BRIAN SWEENEY	15
Sentimental Satire in Anita Loos's Gentlemen Prefer Blondes LISA MENDELMAN	36
"Grimly sentimental": Pleasure, Trauma and Djuna Barnes's Ryder JULIE TAYLOR	56
"Violent and sentimental by turns": Labor Defender , Sentimentalism and the American Literary Left NATHANIEL CADLE	70
"You give a damn about so many things I don't": Hemingway's Gendered Sentimentalism in "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" and "The Short, Happy Life of Francis Macomber" MICHAEL T. WILSON	90
Sentimentalism and Celebrity Culture: Mae West as Novelist ANNE-MARIE EVANS	107
Swedenborgian Sentimentalism in John Rechy's City of Night MARÍA DEGUZMÁN	121
"Shame, thas a shame": The Anti-Sentiment of Sapphire's Push and The Kid ERICA D. GALIOTO	134

vi Table of Contents

Profitable Sentiments: HBO's The Wire and Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin KRISTIN J. JACOBSON	151
Race, Religion and Sentimentalism in Gilead and Home ELIZABETH A. ELLIS	175
Madea's Middle Class: Sentimental Spaces in Tyler Perry's Madea's Family Reunion and Why Did I Get Married? ASHLEY REED and JENNIFER LARSON	190
About the Contributors	211
Index	213