

Contents

Hannah Arendt and Philosophical Traditions

Plurality and the Claims of Alterity	3
---	---

Antonio Gómez Ramos

Singularity, Duality, Plurality: On Thoughtlessness, Friendship and Politics in Hannah Arendt's Work	21
---	----

Jonas Holst

On a Rhetorical Ground of Human Togetherness: Plurality and Mediality in Arendt and Peirce	37
---	----

Alessandro Topa

Hannah Arendt's Phenomenologies

Reconceiving Solidarity in the Wake of Plurality	59
---	----

Aoife McInerney

The Embodiment of Political Freedom: Spontaneous Movement, Plurality and the Ontological Constitution of Public Space	75
--	----

Marieke Borren

From the Darkness to the Light: Hannah Arendt's Phenomenology of Migration	93
---	----

Maria Robaszkiewicz

Political Practices—Political Judgments

Legitimate Leadership Under Conditions of Plurality. Arendt and the Limits of Horizontal Power Relations	111
---	-----

Michael Weinman

Feeling Plurality. How Affectability Leads to Political Judgment	127
---	-----

Héla Hecker

Politics Unblocked: Arendt and Adorno on the Possibility of Action in an Administered World	139
Tobias Albrecht
Reflections Between Past and Future
Anti-plurality and Genocide: Hannah Arendt's Understanding of Holocaust Perpetrators and Contemporary Holocaust Research	159
Robert C. Kunath
Race, Religion and Refugees: Arendt's Ambiguous Analysis of Nation-States	175
Anya Topolski
Index	193