

Contents

List of Contributors	page vii
General Editor's Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Chronology	xii
Introduction: Black Art in Transition Shelly Eversley	I
PART I POETRY AND MUSIC
1 The Society of Umbra and the Coming of the Black Aesthetic Keith D. Leonard	23
2 Robert Hayden, the Black Arts Movement, and the Politics of Aesthetic Distance Derik Smith	50
3 Breathing: Sonia Sanchez's Call to Coalition Building Patricia Herrera	74
4 Reconsidering "the Revolution in Music" Eric Porter	90
PART II CULTURE AND POLITICS
5 The Rights of Black Love Dagmawi Woubshet	119
6 Albert Murray Beyond Plight and Blight Paul C. Taylor	146
7 Espionage and Paths of Black Radicalism GerShun Avilez	173

8	The Necessary Violence of Frantz Fanon and Malcolm X in Global Black Revolution Kelly M. Nims	199
PART III BEYOND THE CANON
9	Meanwhile, Back on the Home Front Phillip Brian Harper	229
10	Radio Free Dixie , Black Arts Radio, and African American Women's Activism Cheryl Higashida	253
	Index	276