
Contents

Notes on Contributors	x
Introduction Karen Coats, Deborah Stevenson, and Vivian Yenika-Agbaw	xvii
Part I: Early Works	1
1 Juvenile Nonfiction before the Golden Age of Anglo-American Children's Literature Ivy Linton Stabell	3
2 The Beginnings of Fiction for Children Claudia Nelson	14
3 Folklore in Children's Literature Debra Mitts-Smith	26
4 The Victorian Picturebook Hannah Field	39
5 The Child-Centered Universe of Nineteenth-Century Children's Nonfiction Elizabeth Massa Hoiem	58
Part II: Twentieth-Century Developments	71
6 Developments in Fiction for Children Mary Jeanette Moran	73
7 Developments of Picturebooks Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer	84
8 Walt Disney and the Fairy Tale Paula T. Connolly	96

9	Stay Tuned: A Political History of Saturday Morning Cartoons Peter C. Kunze	105
10	Live-Action Films for Children Kathy Merlock Jackson	118
11	BreakBeat and the New Auditory Avant-garde – for Children! (Or, That New-fangled Noise the Kids Are All Going On About) Michael Heyman and Joseph T. Thomas, Jr.	129
12	Children’s Literature of the Anglophone Caribbean Sujin Huggins	144
	Part III: Contemporary Trends and Texts	155
13	Children’s Information Books: Initiatives and Trends Elizabeth Bush	157
14	Contemporary Trends in Fiction for Children Thaddeus Andracki	168
15	Contemporary Poetry for Children: Toward Diversity, Complexity, and Innovation Rachel Conrad	179
16	Picturebook Futures Evelyn Arizpe and Emma McGilp	193
17	Postmodern Fairy Tales Cherie Allan	207
18	Theatre and Playwriting for Young Audiences Nicole B. Adkins	218
19	The Portrayal of Girlhoods in Graphic Narratives for Children Elizabeth Marshall	232
20	Playing Children’s Literature: Games in and the Gamification of Books for Kids Gretchen Papazian	242
21	Digital Children’s Literature: Current Understandings and Future Directions Dani Kachorsky	258
	Part IV: Ways of Reading	271
22	Critical Multiculturalism and Children’s Literature: Trends and Possibilities Vivian Yenika-Agbaw	273
23	Cultural Diversity and Social Justice: Readings from the South Macarena García González	287

24	Black Critical Theory in Children's Literary Analysis: Why It Matters Roberta Price Gardner	299
25	Critical Discourse Studies and the Scholarship of Children's Literature Rebecca Rogers and Doris Villarreal	314
26	Disability Elizabeth A. Wheeler	330
27	Growing Up Together: Children's Literature and Women's Studies Susan Larkin	341
28	Read, Write, Play, Review: Young Children's Connected Reading Communities Marianne Martens	352
29	Posthumanism Zoe Jaques	364
30	Narrative Theory and Children's Literature Mike Cadden	376
31	Animal Studies Rachel Falconer	390
32	Trauma Studies Adrienne Kertzer	403
33	Censorship and Children's Literature Emily J.M. Knox	414
34	The Commodification, "Diversification," and Walliams-fication of the British Children's Book Market Melanie Ramdarshan Bold	426
	Index	441