

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Present Valor	1
1: Anglo-American Poetry, the Transatlantic Slave Trade, and the Haitian Revolution in United States Poetry	19
2: Antislavery Poetry in Public: George Moses Horton, John Pierpont, and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow	60
3: Witness against Slavery: John Greenleaf Whittier, William Wells Brown, and Lydia Huntley Sigourney	105
4: Present Valor and the Trauma of Slavery: James Russell Lowell and Elizabeth Barrett Browning	154
5: Frances E. W. Harper and Harriet Beecher Stowe: Preaching, Poetry, and Pedagogy	187
6: Aspects of America: James M. Whitfield, Herman Melville, and Walt Whitman	225
Epilogue: W. E. B. DuBois and the Legacy of Antislavery Poetry	270
Works Cited	283
Index	291