

Contents

Notes on the Contributors . . . . .	vii
Introduction . . . . .	1
Part I. In Defence of Divine Timelessness
1 Robert Pasnau On Existing All at Once . . . . .	11
2 Eleonore Stump Eternity, Simplicity, and Presence . . . . .	29
3 Thomas Schärrtl Why We Need God's Eternity . . . . .	47
Part II. Divine Omniscience and Human Freedom
4 Linda Zagzebski Eternity and Fatalism . . . . .	65
5 Christoph Jäger Molina on Foreknowledge and Transfer of Necessities . . . . .	81
Part III. In Favour of a "Third Way"
6 Christian Tapp Eternity and Infinity . . . . .	99
7 Alan G. Padgett The Difference Creation Makes: Relative Timelessness Reconsidered . . . . .	117
8 Reinhold Bernhardt Timeless Action? Temporality and/or Eternity in God's Being and Acting . . . . .	127

Part IV. In Defence of Divine Temporalism, or: In Debate With Science

9	William Lane Craig Divine Eternity and Einstein's Special Theory of Relativity . . . . .	145
10	Hans Kraml Eternity in Process Philosophies . . . . .	157
	Bibliography . . . . .	169
	Sigla . . . . .	185
	Index . . . . .	187