

Contents

List of contributors	page xi
Foreword P. J. Ucko	xiii
Preface Brian Reeves & Jane Hubert	xxiii
Introduction	1
David Carmichael, Jane Hubert & Brian Reeves
The nature of sacred places	2
Ownership and management of sacred places	5
Sacred landscapes	5
Prospects for progress	6
Archaeologists, indigenous peoples and sacred sites	7
References	8
1 Sacred beliefs and beliefs of sacredness	9
Jane Hubert
References	18
2 Wintu sacred geography of northern California	20
Dorothea J. Theodoratus & Frank LaPena
Introduction	20
Power of place	21
Wintu mythology	22
Geographical features	23
Note	30
References	30
3 Sacred and secular neolithic landscapes in Ireland	32
Gabriel Cooney
Introduction	32
Sacred and secular	33

	Secular landscapes in the Irish Neolithic	34
	Sacred places, sacred landscapes	35
	Post-neolithic use of landscapes	39
	Acknowledgements	41
	References	41
4	Sacred space in the culture of the Arctic regions	44
	O. V. Ovsyannikov & N. M. Terebikhin
	Introduction	44
	Archaeological evidence	44
	Ethnographic considerations	48
	Kozmin Copse	60
	Crosses	72
	References	80
5	Sacred sites in Madagascar	82
	Chantal Radimilahy
	References	88
6	Places of power: Mescalero Apache sacred sites and sensitive areas	89
	David L. Carmichael
	Introduction	89
	Powerful places	91
	Sensitive site types	92
	Natural areas of intersection	92
	Places of transformation	93
	Resource areas	94
	Discussion	95
	Notes	97
	References	97
7	Sacred sites in the Bamenda Grassfields of Cameroon: a study of sacred sites in the Nso' Fondom	99
	Mary Maimo Mumah
	Introduction	99
	Types of sacred sites	99
	Nso' palace sacred sites	106
	The yearly offering in the Fëm	110
	Conclusion	113
	Note	114
	Acknowledgement	114
	References	114

8	Bukusu sacred sites Simiyu Wandibba	115
	Introduction	115
	Indigenous religious beliefs	115
	Sacred sites	116
	Conclusion	119
	Acknowledgements	120
	References	120
9	Sacrificial places and their meaning in Saami society Inga-Maria Mulk	121
	Introduction Audhild Schanche	121
	Saami sacred sites	123
	Distribution, location and function	123
	The function of sacrificial places in Saami society	125
	The importance of sacrificial places for the Saami of today	130
	References	130
10	The Mijikenda kaya as a sacred site H. W. Mutoro	132
	Introduction	132
	The Mijikenda	132
	The kaya	134
	Conclusion	137
	Acknowledgements	138
	References	138
11	The perception and treatment of prehistoric and contemporary sacred places and sites in Poland Katarzyna Marciniak	140
	Prehistoric sacred places and sites	140
	Contemporary sacred places and sites	143
	Conclusion	151
	References	151
12	Islam on the Kenyan coast: an overview of Kenyan coastal sacred sites George H. Okello Abungu	152
	The Kenyan coast	152
	Different types of sacred places	154
	Non-Muslims	154
	Caves and rock shelters	154
	Muslims	154
	Mbaraki Pillar and Mosque	154

	Kenyan south coast	159
	Kenyan north coast	159
	General observations	160
	Conclusion	161
	Acknowledgements	162
	References	162
13	A ceremony in the 'cave of idolatry': an eighteenth-century document from the Diocesan Historic Archive, Chiapas, Mexico	163
	Inés Sanmiguel
	References	171
14	At the mouth of the obsidian cave: deity and place in Aztec religion	172
	Nicholas J. Saunders
	Introduction	172
	The sacred landscape	173
	Caves	175
	Obsidian: the divine stone	176
	Tezcatlipoca/Tepeyollotli: the deity of place	176
	Conclusions	180
	References	181
15	Sto:lo sacred ground	184
	Gordon Mohs
	The Sto:lo Indians	184
	To:lmels Ye Siyelyolexwa	184
	Sto:lo spirituality and mythological base	189
	Site classification	192
	Transformer sites	192
	Spirit residences	195
	Ceremonial areas	195
	Traditional landmarks	196
	Questing/power sites	197
	Legendary and mythological places	197
	Burials	197
	Traditional resource areas	198
	Other	198
	Preservation concerns	200
	Management considerations	202
	Significance	203
	Legislation, policies and programmes	203
	Native options and management alternatives	204
	Conclusion	206

	Note	207
	Acknowledgements	207
	References	207
16	The spirits of the Chugach people of Alaska are at rest once again John F. C. Johnson	209
	Introduction	209
	Chugach man	210
	Other reburials	215
17	Waahi tapu: Maori sacred sites Hirini Matunga	217
	Introduction	217
	Who owns the past?	218
	Waahi tapu	219
	Protection and management of waahi tapu	221
	Individual perceptions	223
	Conclusion	225
	Note	225
	References	226
18	Principles and practice of site protection laws in Australia David Ritchie	227
	Introduction	227
	Categories of legislation protecting Aboriginal sites	229
	‘Sacred sites’: Aboriginal beliefs and legal dilemmas	230
	Site recording, site legislation and site protection	234
	‘Sacred sites’ in Northern Territory legislation	238
	Conclusions and some apprehension concerning the future	240
	Note	243
	References	243
19	When sacred land is sacred to three tribes: San Juan Paiute sacred sites and the Hopi-Navajo-Paiute suit to partition the Arizona Navajo Reservation Robert Franklin & Pamela Bunte	245
	Introduction	245
	Historic background	245
	Paiute sacred land in the 1934 Act reservation	249
	Protecting sacred land in the 1934 Act reservation	252
	Acknowledgements	256
	References	256

20	Tourism and the Bighorn Medicine Wheel: how multiple use does not work for sacred land sites	259
	Nicole Price
	History of Native use	260
	Why the Medicine Wheel and Mountain are sacred	260
	Multiple use and the Forest Service	262
	Development plans	262
	The highest and best use	263
	Postscript	264
	Reference	264
21	Ninaistákis – the Nitsitapíi's sacred mountain: traditional Native religious activities and land use/tourism conflicts	265
	Brian Reeves
	Introduction	265
	Ninaistákis: the place	265
	Ninaistákis: the name	274
	Traditional Nitsitapíi religious significance	276
	Vision questing	276
	Origin of the Long-Time Medicine Pipe	279
	Contemporary religious activity and land use/tourism conflicts	282
	The future: problems and solutions	288
	The alternative	289
	Postscript	290
	Notes	290
	Acknowledgements	294
	References	294
	Index	296