

CONTENTS

Introductory note	vii
1. From Knossos to Homer Bernard Dietrich (University of Wales Aberystwyth)	1
2. From epiphany to cult statue Walter Burkert (University of Zurich)	15
3. Heraclitus and the rites of established religion Catherine Osborne (University of Wales Swansea)	35
4. The moral dimension of Pythian Apollo J.K. Davies (University of Liverpool)	43
5. Gods and mountains in Greek myth and poetry Michael Clarke (University of Manchester)	65
6. Aspects of Athena in the Greek polis: Sparta and Corinth A.C. Villing (University of Oxford)	81
7. Herodotus and the certainty of divine retribution Thomas Harrison (University of St Andrews)	101
8. Divinity and moral agency in Sophoclean tragedy Seth L. Schein (University of California, Davis)	123
9. Thunder, lightning and earthquake in the Bacchae and the Acts of the Apostles Richard Seaford (University of Exeter)	139
10. Athena and the Amazons: mortal and immortal femininity in Greek myth Susan Deacy (University of Keele)	153
11. Orphic gods and other gods Anne-France Morand (University of Geneva)	169
Index	183