

CONTENTS

Preface	1
Part One The First Century
THE PHARISAIC STAGE IN THE FORMATION OF JUDAISM
I. "Covenantal Nomism." The Piety of Judaism in the First Century	9
Part Two The Second Century
THE MISHNAIC STAGE IN THE FORMATION OF JUDAISM
II. Development of the Halakhah Down to the Mishnah	37
Part Three The Fourth Century
THE TALMUDIC STAGE IN THE FORMATION OF JUDAISM
III. Religious Affections in the Formative History of Judaism	69
IV. Why Judaism Won. The Fourth Century as the True First Century in the History of the Judaic and Christian West	77
Part Four Beyond the Fourth Century
JUDAISM AT THE END OF THE FORMATIVE AGE
V. Judaism. A Systematic Definition	89
Part Five The Twentieth Century
METHODS AND DISCIPLINES IN THE DEFINITION OF JUDAISM MORE DEBATES AND DISPUTES
VI. The Synoptic Problem in Rabbinic Literature. The Cases of the Mishnah, Tosefta, Sifra, and Leviticus Rabbah	123
VII. The Mishnah and the Smudgepots. Or Why, Where There's Smoke, There Isn't Always Fire	139
VIII. Naming Judaism and Other Simple Things	151
IX. Toward the Disciplinary Expansion of Judaic Studies	161
Index	169