

Contents

Preface		vii
Introduction: Why Narrative?	• Stanley Hauerwas and L. Gregory Jones	1
I: NARRATIVE REDISCOVERED
The Story of Our Life	• H. Richard Niebuhr	21
Apologetics, Criticism, and the Loss of Narrative Interpretation	• Hans Frei	45
The Narrative Quality of Experience	• Stephen Crites	65
The Virtues, the Unity of a Human Life, and the Concept of a Tradition	• Alasdair MacIntyre	89
II: NARRATIVE AS A CRITICAL TOOL
Ideology, Metaphor, and Analogy	• Nicholas Lash	113
Epistemological Crises, Dramatic Narrative, and the Philosophy of Science	• Alasdair MacIntyre	138

Stanley Hauerwas and L. Gregory Jones

From System to Story: An Alternative Pattern for Rationality in Ethics • Stanley Hauerwas and David Burrell 158

System, Story, Performance: A Proposal about the Role of Narrative in Christian Systematic Theology • David F. Ford 191

Narrative Emotions: Beckett's Genealogy of Love • Martha Nussbaum 216

III: NARRATIVE'S THEOLOGICAL SIGNIFICANCE

A Short Apology of Narrative • Johann Baptist Metz 251

The Narrative Structure of Soteriology • Michael Root 263

Theological Investments in Story: Some Comments on Recent Developments and Some Proposals • Julian Hartt 279

A Respectful Reply to the Assertorical
Theologian • Stephen Crites 293

Why the Truth Demands Truthfulness: An Imperious
Engagement with Hartt • Stanley Hauerwas 303

Reply to Crites and Hauerwas • Julian Hartt 311

The Promising God: The Gospel
as Narrated Promise • Ronald Thiemann 320

God, Action, and Narrative: Which Narrative?
Which Action? Which God? • Michael Goldberg 348

Contributors 366