

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
The Contributors	viii
Introduction	1
Marcella Althaus-Reid
1 'Let Them Talk ...!' Doing Liberation Theology from Latin American Closets	5
Marcella Althaus-Reid
2 Once Again Liberating Theology? Towards a Latin American Liberation Theological Self-Criticism	19
Otto Maduro
3 Queer Eye for the Straight Guy: The Making Over of Liberation Theology, A Queer Discursive Approach	33
Ivan Petrella
4 Oh, Que Sera, Que Sera ... A Limping A/Theological Thought in Brazil	51
Claudio Carvalhaes
5 Commodity Aesthetics and the Erotics of Relationship: Challenges of Feminist Hermeneutics of Liberation to Market Aesthetics	71
Nancy Cardoso Pereira
6 The Prostitutes Also Go into the Kingdom of God: A Queer Reading of Mary of Magdala	81
Martín Hugo Córdova Quero
7 Liberation Theology, Modernity and Sexual Difference	111
Frederico Pieper Pires
8 Liberating Mary, Liberating the Poor	123
Mario Ribas

9	Seriously Harmful For Your Health? Religion, Feminism and Sexuality in Latin America Elina Vuola	137
10	Worship and the Excluded Jaci Maraschin	163
11	Love in Times of Dictatorships: Memoirs from a Gay Minister from Buenos Aires Roberto González with Norberto D'Amico	179
	Index	189