

WARSAW TESTAMENT

By Rokhl Auerbach

Translated by Samuel Kassow

Table of Contents

Introduction	xi
Editor's Note	xxxix
Foreword	xli
Part 1: Warsaw Fought
1 Blades in the Sky	1
2 Candles at Twilight	6
3 My Last Time at Tlomackie 13	10
4 September Neighbors	15
5 Sunday "Five O'Clocks" at Mrs. Cecilia Slepak's	30
Part 2: The Story of a Kitchen
6 The Kitchen at Leszno 40	36
7 Hunger	42
8 Adolf as in Hitler. Bund as in Felkerbund	53
9 Families	57
10 People and Pots	59
11 Instructors	68
12 The Kitchen Staff	71
13 The Blue Overalls	77
14 They'll Take You Too	87
Part 3: The Zamlers
15 The Death of a Righteous Man	91
16 A Remembrance for Memakhem Kipnis	113
Father and Daughter	117

Part 4: The Record of Our Struggle and Destruction

17	The Mission and Fate of Emanuel Ringelblum	122
18	Personal Encounters	129
19	Testaments	145
20	One Last Conversation	152
21	The Martyr's Crown	155

Part 5: Before the Great Deportation

22	Old Man Zaks	161
23	Hershele	163
24	One More Hershele	169
25	Our Gandhi	171
26	The Holy, the Worldly, and the Polished Boots	175
27	The Self-Taught Scholar	177

Part 6: The IKOR Group

28	The Organizer	180
	The Mousetrap at Mylna 9	188
29	The Lecturers	203
30	The Librarians	210
	Pani Basia	219
31	The Supplier	228

Part 7: Memorial Lights

32	The Father	238
	The Two Glatshyteyns	256
33	Wax Candles	260
	Josima	266
34	A Tree in the Ghetto	274
35	Scattered Pearls	282
	Ivan the Father and Ivan the Son	293
	The First Jan Was Janina	295
	An Attic in Praga	303
	Among the "Cats" in the Zoo	313
	In Frau Krauze's House	319
	Trouble and a Silver Lining	325
	If It Wasn't for Pani Maria	331

Bigos and Home Brew in the Pheasant Cage	333
The Notebooks in Glass Jars Survived	335
Postscript	338
Notes	341
Biographical Notes	385
Selected Chronology	405