

Robert K. Paterson

TATTOOED HISTORY

THE STORY OF MOKOMOKAI

TABLE OF CONTENTS

7	Acknowledgements	109	Horatio Gordon Robley: the “Soldier With A Pencil”
9	Introduction	123	Mokomokai and the Last Major British Collectors
15	The First Written Accounts	135	Carved “Memorial” or “Trespass” Heads: Mata Rahui
35	A Question of Language: from Mokomokai and Mokamokai to Tōi Moko	147	Mokomokai and the Law of Human Remains
41	Colonial Commodities: Trafficking in Mokomokai , from 1770 to 1840	155	The Repatriation of Tōi Moko to the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa
65	Exhibiting Mokomokai for Profit in Early Nineteenth- Century Britain	162	Documentary Appendices
75	Mokomokai at British Auctions: 1820 to 1988	177	Maori Glossary
89	Mokomokai in New Zealand from 1840 to 1975	178	Selected Bibliography