

THE WAR ON SCIENCE

Renowned Scientists and Scholars Speak Out
About Current Threats to Free Speech,
Open Inquiry and the Scientific Process

Edited by
Lawrence M. Krauss

FORUM

Contents

Introduction and Overview—Lawrence M. Krauss	3
Part 1: Free Speech, Victimhood, and Ideology	29
Scientific Truth Stands Above Human Feelings and Politics	31
Richard Dawkins
How Ideology Threatens to Corrupt Science	68
Alan Sokal
The Treason of the Intellectuals	79
Niall Ferguson
Universities as Dispensers of Parasitic Ideas	90
Gad Saad
Spotlight on Scientific Censorship	100
Anna Krylov and Jay Tanzman
Part 2: Ideological Corruption of Academic Disciplines	117
How Do You Decolonize Mathematics?	119
John Armstrong
The Ideological Subversion of Biology	128
Jerry A. Coyne and Luana S. Maroja
Social Justice, MD—Medicine under Threat	156
Sally Satel

Part 3: The Impact of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Bureaucracies on Scholarship in Academia and Beyond 167

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion: The Dismal Pseudoscience
Threatening Science 169

Geoff Horsman

The Leaning Ivory Tower 181

Alessandro Strumia

DEI in Science and Medicine: Missing Metrics and Measures 196

Roger B. Cohen and Amy L. Wax

Part 4: Gender, Ideology, Science, and Scholarship 213

A Deafening Silence: Bioethics and Gender-Affirming Health Care 215

Alex Byrne and Moti Gorin

The Gender Wars and Academic Freedom 235

Judith Suissa and Alice Sullivan

Part 5: What Can Be Done? 257

Science and Politics: Three Principles, Three Fables 259

Dorian Abbot

A Five-Point Plan to Save Universities from Themselves 273

Steven Pinker

Teaching Inclusion in a Divided World 280

Nicholas A. Christakis

Depoliticizing Science Requires Revolutionary Reform
of the Professoriate 282

Richard E. Redding

Epilogue—Lawrence M. Krauss 289

Contributors 291

References and Footnotes 297