

Table of Contents

| | pages |
|--|-------|
| Preface | VII |
| Abbreviations | IX |
| Chapter I: Introduction | 1 |
| I. Form Criticism and Morphological Method | 1 |
| II. The Analysis of Literary Forms | 2 |
| Chapter II: The Data in Translation | 6 |
| Chapter III: The Word as Literature | 28 |
| I. The Size of Units and the Process of Transmission | 28 |
| II. Poetry | 37 |
| III. Narrative | 51 |
| Chapter IV: The Word as Communication | 59 |
| I. Introduction | 59 |
| II. The Speaker | 60 |
| A. Threats | 61 |
| B. Accusations | 61 |
| C. Positive Motifs. Relations to the Cult | 69 |
| III. The Addressee | 71 |
| Chapter V: The Word as Message: Terms | 81 |
| I. Introduction | 81 |
| II. Negative Terms | 83 |
| A. General Negative Terms | 83 |
| 1. Enmity | 83 |
| 2. Separation and Negation | 86 |
| B. Terms of Threat and Destruction | 89 |
| 1. Judicial Controversy (Rîb) | 89 |
| 2. »The Day of Yahweh« and Terms for War and Destruction | 93 |
| 3. Other Threatening Terms | 95 |
| C. Terms of Accusation | 98 |
| 1. General and Moral Evil | 98 |
| 2. Sins More Specifically Against Yahweh | 102 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| III. Positive Terms | 105 |
| A. Expectations or Hopes for Israel. | 105 |
| B. Recognitions of Yahweh | 110 |
| IV. Open or Ambiguous Terms for the God-Israel Relationship and Its Cult | 111 |
| V. Conclusion | 113 |
| | |
| Chapter VI: The Word as Message: Structure | 116 |
| I. The Function of Prophecy in Its Context | 116 |
| II. The Negative Structure | 119 |
| III. The Positive Structure | 126 |
| IV. The Structure of Eschatology | 129 |
| A. Hosea's Conceptual Pattern | 129 |
| B. The Dynamics of Eschatological Expectations | 133 |
| C. Future and End in Human Life and the Question of Love | 138 |
| | |
| Index | 141 |