

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	9
Introduction	13
I. Prolegomena: Defining the Object of Study	19
1. The Prophets in the Canon	19
2. Modern Critical Study of Prophecy	26
3. Words and Meanings	35
4. The Social Location of the Prophet	38
Notes	46
II. From the Beginnings to Amos	53
1. Near Eastern Prophecy and the Problem of Origins	53
2. War Prophecy and the Passage to Monarchy	61
3. Prophecy in the Northern Kingdom: Elijah and Elisha	68
Notes	77
III. The Period of Assyrian Expansion	80
1. The International Situation	80
2. Amos	86
3. Hosea	96
4. Isaiah of Jerusalem	106
5. Micah	118
Notes	125
IV. The End of National Independence	138
1. The Last Attempt at Emancipation and Reform	138
2. The Perspective of Cult Prophecy on International Affairs: Nahum and Habakkuk	146
3. Jeremiah	153
Notes	169

V. Between the Old Order and the New	177
1. Prophecy in Crisis	177
2. The Exilic-Deuteronomic Response	188
3. Ezekiel	193
4. Second Isaiah and the Revival of Prophecy	207
Notes	218
VI. Prophets and Prophecy in the Second Commonwealth	225
1. Palestinian Judaism in the Early Persian Period	225
2. Messianic Movements in the Early Persian Period: Third Isaiah	242
3. Temple Prophecy	251
4. The Eschatological Reinterpretation of Prophecy	255
5. Jonah	268
Notes	273
Index of Selected Biblical References.	281