

CONTENTS

Stephen Daniels Foreword	9
Acknowledgements	11
Notes on Contributors	13
Catherine Brace and Adeline Johns-Putra Introduction	19

Process

1 Catherine Brace and Adeline Johns-Putra The Importance of Process	29
2 John Wylie Writing through Landscape	45
3 Richard Kerridge Environmental Fiction and Narrative Openness	65
4 Roger Ebbatson The Spiritual Geography of Edward Thomas	87

Moments

5 Frank Gohlke and Herbert Gottfried 42.30 N	107
6 Jacob Bull and Michael Leyshon Writing the Moment: Landscape and the Memory-Image	125
7 Iain Biggs Essaying Place: Landscape, Music, and Memory (after Janet Wolff)	149
8 joni m palmer The Forest for the Trees: Fieldbooks as Sites of Change: Reading and Writing 'Cities in the 21 st Century'	173

9	Sylvie Crinquand Epistolary Sketches: Landscapes in a Few Letters by Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats	205
---	---	-----

Forms

10	Jolie B. Kaytes Dirty Words	227
11	Sophie Anne Edwards La Cloche, Northeastern Ontario: Liminal Passages	243
12	Christine Berberich Writing England, Finding the Self: Jonathan Raban and the Travelogue as Identity Tool	267
13	Pamela Banting Geography as Intertext: Toward a Non-representational Reading of Thomas Wharton's Novel Icefields	285
14	Kym Martindale She Do the River in Different Voices: Lyric Democracies in Alice Oswald's Dart	309
15	Sherry Booth Landscape, Metaphor and Biology: Rethinking Women and Nature	329
	Index	353