

CONTENTS

The Apocrypha	viii
Preface	ix
List of Illustrations	xix
Principal Abbreviations	xxi

I ESDRAS

INTRODUCTION	1
I. Name, Contents, and Relationship to Sources	1
II. Text, Versions, Language	5
III. Purpose and Date	8
IV. Textual and Historical Significance	15
V. Theological and Practical Interests	16
BIBLIOGRAPHY I	20
TRANSLATION, NOTES, AND COMMENTS	23
I. The Period of Josiah (1:1–31)	23
II. The Last Kings of Judah (1:32–55)	30
III. The Decree of Cyrus and the Response Thereto (2:1–14)	35
IV. Correspondence between the Samaritan Officials and the Persian Court (2:15–25)	39
V. The Story of the Bodyguards (3:1 – 4:63)	44
VI. Preparations for and Return from Captivity (5:1–70)	58
VII. Events Associated with the Reconstruction of the Temple (6:1 – 7:15)	72
VIII. The Ezra Story (8:1 – 9:55)	81
APPENDIX: List of Men with Alien Wives	101

II ESDRAS

INTRODUCTION	107
I. The Name of the Book	107
II. Outline of Content	108
III. Manuscripts and Versions	113
IV. Original Language	115
V. The Unity of the Book	119
VI. The Theology of II Esdras (chs. 3–14)	121
VII. Messianic Implications	126
VIII. Date and Purpose	129
IX. Literary Relationships	131
BIBLIOGRAPHY II	135
TRANSLATION, NOTES, AND COMMENTS	140
I. Ezra's Divine Commission (1–2)	140
1. The pedigree of Ezra (1:1–3)	140
2. The Lord's complaint to Ezra (1:4–12)	140
3. Rehearsal of the Lord's benefits in the exodus and wilderness (1:13–27)	141
4. The Lord's appeal to his people (1:28–32)	142
5. A new people (1:33–37)	142
6. The patriarchs and prophets as leaders of the new people (1:38–40)	143
7. Judgment of dispersion (2:1–7)	143
8. The curse of Assyria (2:8–9)	144
9. The Lord's address to Ezra (2:10–32)	144
a. The kingdom of Jerusalem is to be given to "my people" instead of to Israel (2:10–14)	144
b. Appeal to the mother to embrace her sons (2:15–32)	144
10. The Lord's commands to Ezra (2:33–41)	146
11. Ezra's vision and dialogue with the angel (2:42–48)	147

II. The Ezra Apocalypse (3 – 14)	159
A. The First Vision (3:1 – 5:19)	159
1. Introduction: the troubled meditation of Ezra (3:1–3)	159
2. The prayer complaint of Ezra (3:4–36)	159
3. Dialogue with Uriel (4:1 – 5:19)	162
a. Can the human mind comprehend the way of the Most High? (4:1–11)	162
b. It is ridiculous to try to comprehend what is unnatural (4:12–21)	163
c. But why can't man understand things below? (4:22–32)	164
d. When will that be? (4:33–43)	165
e. Further inquiry about the time — more past than yet to come (4:44–50)	166
f. Signs in response to the prayer of Ezra (4:51 – 5:13)	166
g. The end of the vision (5:14–19)	168
B. The Second Vision (5:20 – 6:34)	185
1. Introduction (5:20–22)	185
2. Prayer complaint to the Most High and the angel's response (5:23–40)	185
a. The prayer (5:23–30)	185
b. The response (5:31–40)	186
3. Why successive generations were created (5:41–55)	187
a. The divine plan is for successive generations (5:41–47)	187
b. The earth is like a womb, engendering one generation after another—each smaller and weaker (5:48–55)	188
4. The end will come through God alone (5:56 – 6:6)	189
5. The division of the times (6:7–10)	190
6. Request for and revelation of signs of the end-time (6:11–28)	190
a. Introduction (6:11–12)	190
b. Revelation of the signs (6:13–24)	190
c. The state of those who survive: the saved (6:25–28)	191
7. Advice concerning things to come — warning against speculation (6:29–34)	192

C. The Third Vision (6:35–9:25)	203
1. Introduction — after the seven days' fast (6:35–37)	203
2. Question: Why has Israel become the prey of other nations if it was for its sake that the world was created? (6:38–59)	204
3. Response to the question by the interpreting angel (7:1–16)	205
4. Question and answer on lot of the righteous and the wicked (7:17–25)	207
5. The appearance of the messiah with accompanying events (7:26–30)	208
6. Judgment of the resurrected (7:31–44)	208
7. Question: How many are saved, with response (7:45–61)	210
8. Lamentation of Ezra, with response (7:62–74)	211
9. Question: What is the state of the soul between death and the new creation (judgment)? (7:75–101)	212
10. Question: May the righteous intercede for the ungodly? (7:102–115)	215
11. Question: What is the use of living, if everybody is doomed to sin? Answer: It is necessary to fight; if victorious there is salvation, if not, then death (7:116–131)	217
12. Question: Does the mercy and compassion of God mean that many will be saved? Answer: This world was made for the many, the world to come for the few (7:132–8:3)	218
13. Why was man made to live such a short time? (8:4–19)	219
14. Ezra's prayer for his people and the divine response (8:20–41)	221
15. Question: Is man to be compared with seeds and plants? (8:42–62)	223
16. Signs for the seer's time (8:63–9:13)	225
17. Few saved, with justification (9:14–25)	226

D. The Fourth Vision (9:26 – 10:59)	262
1. Preparation for the vision (9:26–28)	262
2. Audible meditation on the permanence of the law (9:29–37)	262
3. The vision of the despondent woman (9:38 – 10:24)	263
a. The woman's misfortune (9:38 – 10:4)	263
b. She is told to bear her sorrow bravely, and if so — accepting the judgment of God — she will receive back her son (10:5–17)	264
c. The response of the woman (10:18)	265
d. Further remonstrance of Ezra (10:19–24)	265
4. Identification of the woman (10:25–59)	267
a. The city replaces the woman (10:25–27)	267
b. Uriel's interpretation (10:28–59)	267
E. The Fifth (Eagle) Vision (10:60 – 12:51)	280
1. The vision of an eagle with twelve wings and three heads (10:60 – 12:3a)	280
2. Request for and interpretation of the vision (12:3b–35)	284
a. Weakened by his dream-vision ordeal, Ezra pleads for strength (12:3b–6)	284
b. Ezra's prayer (12:7–9)	284
c. Interpretation of the vision (12:10–35)	284
3. Command to write down the vision, and the seven-day interval (12:36–39)	286
4. Popular reaction to Ezra's seven-day absence (12:40–45)	287
5. Ezra's response (12:46–49)	287
6. Interlude (12:50–51)
F. The Sixth Vision (The Man from the Sea) (13:1–58)	302
1. A dream vision (13:1–13a)	302
2. Request for interpretation of the dream vision (13:13b–20)	303
3. Interpretation of the dream vision (13:21–50)	304
4. Further question and explanation (13:51–56)	306
5. Waiting in the field (13:57–58)	307

G. The Seventh Vision (The Legend of Ezra) (14:1–51)	317
1. Conversation with the voice from the bush (14:1–17)	317
2. Ezra's prayer for the spirit's help in reproducing the Scriptures and the Lord's response (14:18–26)	318
3. Ezra's address to the people (14:27–36)	319
4. Ezra's experience in the field (14:37–44)	320
5. Command of the Most High (14:45–47)	321
6. The response of Ezra and his translation (14:48–51)	321
III. Sixth Ezra (15 – 16)	330
1. The author is directed to speak and write down the words the Lord is putting into his mouth (15:1–4)	330
2. Evils to be brought on the whole world, God's people to be delivered again from Egypt, and Egypt stricken (15:5–19)	330
3. Oppressors of God's chosen ones and sinners among the latter will be subject to disaster by virtue of their sins (15:20–27)	331
4. A vision dreadful (15:28–33)	332
5. The appearance of ominous storm clouds (15:34–45)	333
6. Asia has become like Babylon (15:46–63)	334
7. Malediction against Babylon, Asia, Egypt, and Syria (16:1–17)	335
8. The beginning of sorrows (16:18–35)	336
9. Appeal to the servants of the Lord (16:36–40)	337
10. The word: prepare for the worst (16:41–51)	338
11. Wickedness will be removed from the earth (16:52–68)	339
12. Subjection to indignities a test for the chosen (16:69–74)	340
13. The promise of the Lord (16:75–78)	340
Indexes
Authors	355
Subjects	358
Scriptural and Other References	361
Key to the Texts	384