

Contents

Introduction	I
Ruth as a story of headscarves	I
Seeing and reading	2
A miniature	3
Ruth 1: The Journey	4
Translation	4
Through the eye of the needle	6
Through Naomi's eyes	9
Naomi gets her own eyes	9
Naomi as the complaining mother-in-law	10
Naomi's hopeless gaze	14
In Naomi's own words	15
Through Ruth's eyes	17
Ruth gets her own eyes	17
Ruth's deliberate choice	18
Ruth takes the initiative	20
Ruth's faith	22
In Ruth's own words	23
Ruth 2: The Encounter	26
Translation	26
Through Naomi's eyes	29
Naomi's knowledge	29
Naomi's hope returns	30

Kinship and law through Naomi's eyes	32
In Naomi's own words	35
Through Boaz's eyes	37
The introduction of Boaz	37
Boaz the boss	38
Boaz charmed by Ruth	40
Boaz's view of life and his faith	43
In Boaz's own words	47
Through Ruth's eyes	49
A foreigner between courage and humility	49
From going to waiting	51
Intermezzo 1	53
Intermezzo 2	55
Pure action and patience	57
A foreigner seen	59
In Ruth's own words	61
Ruth 3: Midnight	64
Translation	64
Through Naomi's eyes	66
Naomi's initiative	66
Naomi the stage manager	67
Naomi is too cunning for the law	69
Naomi learns from Ruth	71
In Naomi's own words	73
Through Ruth's eyes	75
Ruth learns from Naomi	75
Midnight	76
In the early morning	79
In Ruth's own words	80

	vii
Through Boaz's eyes	82
Boaz, a man with properties	82
Ambiguity on the threshing floor	84
Boaz's promise	86
An open end on the threshing floor	88
In Boaz's own words	89
Ruth 4: Life Goes On	91
Translation	91
Through Boaz's eyes	93
At the gate	93
Boaz is captivating	95
Stratego	99
Boaz and Ruth	101
In Boaz's own words	104
Through the eyes of the men at the gate	106
The standard blessing	106
The undercurrent	107
Through the eyes of the women	109
Naming names	109
Ruth, the full daughter	111
Mothers	112
Fathers in place of mothers	114
Ruth 1-4: Through the Eyes of the Narrator	116
The narrator in historical perspective	116
Historical dating of the book of Ruth	116
Through the eyes of narrator 1	119
Through the eyes of narrator 2	122

Alternative ancestors	127
Tamar and Ruth	127
Rachel and Leah, Naomi and Ruth	130
Abraham and Lot, Ruth and Boaz	131
The God of Abraham and Ruth	136
GoGoGod	136
God who breaks in	137
A Guide to Reading	140
A Short Bibliography	148