

CONTENTS

Preface	9
Abbreviations	11

Part One

THE NATURE AND IDENTITY OF JEWISH APOCALYPTIC

I THE MILIEU OF APOCALYPTIC	15
1 The historical and cultural background	15
2 Judaism and apocalyptic	20
3 Apocalyptic and the Jewish parties	23
4 The 'popularity' of apocalyptic	28
5 Christianity and apocalyptic	33
II THE APOCALYPTIC LITERATURE	36
1 Apocalyptic and 'sectarian' books	36
2 The Qumran texts	40
3 The literature of the second and first centuries BC	48
4 The literature of the first century AD	58
5 Some lost pseudepigraphic and apocalyptic books	66

Part Two

THE METHOD OF JEWISH APOCALYPTIC

III THE DECLINE OF PROPHECY AND THE RISE OF APOCALYPTIC	73
1 The decline of prophecy	73
2 Oral tradition and apocalyptic tradition	82
3 Apocalyptic, embedded in prophecy	88
4 Apocalyptic, a development of prophecy	92
5 Apocalyptic and the predictive side of prophecy	96
6 A message ethically based	100
IV CHARACTERISTICS OF THE APOCALYPTIC WRITINGS	104
1 Some general marks of apocalyptic	104
2 Esoteric in character	107
3 Literary in form	118
4 Symbolic in language	122
5 Pseudonymous in authorship	127
V THE APOCALYPTIC CONSCIOUSNESS	140
1 Physiology in its relation to psychology	141
2 The significance of the use of the word 'soul'	145
3 The significance of the use of the word 'spirit'	148

4	The influence of Greek thought on ideas relating to the creation and nature of man	151
5	The influence of Hebrew thought on the conception of the unity of personality	153
VI APOCALYPTIC INSPIRATION		158
1	Inspiration as 'possession'	159
2	Media of revelation	161
3	Dreams, visions and auditions	162
4	Evidence of genuine psychical experience	164
5	Translation	166
6	Preparations for psychical experience	169
	Additional note:
	A. The apocalyptist and the priest	173
	B. The apocalyptist and the sage	175
VII APOCALYPTIC AND THE INTERPRETATION OF PROPHECY		178
1	The background of biblical exegesis	178
2	Unfulfilled prophecy	181
3	The method of apocalyptic interpretation	183
4	The influence of prophetic language and thought	187
5	Conscious adaptation of prophecy	190
6	Allegorical arithmetic	195
Part Three
THE MESSAGE OF JEWISH APOCALYPTIC
VIII HUMAN HISTORY AND DIVINE CONTROL		205
1	The nature of time and eternity	205
2	Time and the recurrence of events	213
3	The unity of history	217
4	History systematically arranged	224
5	History determined beforehand	230
IX ANGELS AND DEMONS		235
1	The world of spirits	235
2	The growth of angelology	240
3	Guardian angels of the nations	244
4	Fallen angels and the origin of evil	249
5	Satan and his demons	254
6	The influence of foreign thought	257
X THE TIME OF THE END		263
1	'The hour is at hand'	263
2	The new eschatology	264
3	Signs of the End	271
4	Antichrist	276
5	Creation and re-creation	280

XI THE MESSIANIC KINGDOM	285
1 The idea of the kingdom	285
2 The kingdom on this earth	286
3 The kingdom in heaven	290
4 A temporary kingdom followed by 'the age to come'	291
5 The salvation of Israel and the judgment of the Gentiles	297
XII THE TRADITIONAL MESSIAH	304
1 The term 'Messiah' and its Old Testament background	304
2 The figure of the Messiah in the apocalyptic literature	308
3 The Levitic Messiah	310
4 The Davidic Messiah	316
5 The Messiah and the Dead Sea Scrolls	319
XIII THE SON OF MAN	324
1 The literary sources of the expression 'Son of Man'	324
2 Son of Man as Messiah	331
3 Messiah, Son of Man and Suffering Servant	334
4 The Son of Man and the biblical tradition	340
5 A mythological interpretation	345
6 A corporate interpretation	350
XIV LIFE AFTER DEATH	353
1 The Old Testament background	353
2 The idea of Sheol in the apocalyptic writings	357
3 The origin and development of the resurrection belief	366
4 The resurrection body	374
5 The last judgment	379
6 The influence of foreign thought	385
Appendix I: Christian lists of Jewish apocryphal books	391
Appendix II: A list of psychological terms in the apocalyptic literature	396
Bibliography	406
Index of Subjects	431
Index of Authors	443
Index of Texts	446