

SOVIET JEWS UNDER LATE STALINISM

A Story from the Western Borderlands

DIANA DUMITRU

Georgetown University

Contents

List of Figures	page viii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: Indispensable Yet Suspect: Jews in Soviet Moldavia, 1944–1953	i
1 The Return	23
2 Jewish Social Mobility in the Newly Sovietizing Periphery	65
3 “Life in Romania Was Better than in the Soviet Union”: How Bessarabian Jews Tried (and Frequently Failed) to Become Dutiful Soviet Citizens	105
4 Seeking Revenge and Justice after the Holocaust	138
5 Fighting Antisemitism in Its Manyfold Forms	181
6 From Starry Skies to the Abyss: Jewish National Dreams after 1948	216
Epilogue	255
Bibliography	262
Index	279