

CONTENTS

|                                                                   |           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| ABBREVIATIONS                                                     | ix        |
| MAP OF UKAMBANI                                                   | xii       |
| I. CHRISTIANITY COMES TO AN AFRICAN SOCIETY                | 1  |
| (a) The Scope and Necessity of Our Enquiry                        | 1         |
| (b) The Methodology and Sources of the Study                      | 3         |
| (c) The Akamba People                                             | 4         |
| (d) The Coming of Christianity to Ukambani                        | 10        |
| (e) The Church in Ukambani                                        | 17        |
| II. TIME, HISTORY AND ESCHATOLOGY                          | 24 |
| (a) Akamba Concepts of Time and History                           | 24        |
| (b) Time and Eschatology in the New Testament                     | 32        |
| (c) Africa Inland Mission Teaching on Eschatology                 | 51        |
| (d) Conclusions and Observations                                  | 56        |
| III. THE USE OF MATERIALISTIC LANGUAGE IN ESCHATOLOGY      | 62 |
| (a) The Problem                                                   | 62        |
| (b) Gehenna                                                       | 64        |
| (c) Fire                                                          | 67        |
| (d) Treasure                                                      | 70        |
| (e) City                                                          | 75        |
| (f) Country                                                       | 78        |
| (g) Eating and Drinking                                           | 81        |
| (h) Tears and Pain                                                | 83        |
| (i) Heaven                                                        | 85        |
| IV. THE ESCHATOLOGY OF THE SACRAMENTS                      | 91 |
| (a) Sacrifice and Worship Among the Akamba                        | 91        |
| (b) The Eschatology of Baptism                                    | 96        |
| (c) The Eschatology of the Eucharist                              | 101       |
| (d) The Sacraments as the Epitome of the Gospel                   | 105       |
| (e) The Meaning and Place of the Sacraments in Ukambani           | 108       |
| (f) The Practice of Christian Sacraments in an African Background | 116       |

|                                                                           |         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| V. THE NEARNESS OF THE SPIRIT WORLD                                       | 127     |
| (a) Akamba Conception of the Spirit World                                 | 127     |
| (b) The Spirit World in the New Testament                                 | 140     |
| (c) The Teaching of the Africa Inland Mission Concerning the Spirit World | 151     |
| (d) Akamba and New Testament Views of the Spirit World                    | 153     |
| VI. THE RESURRECTION AS CORPORATEESCHATOLOGY                      | 157 |
| (a) Akamba Ideas of Resurrection                                          | 157     |
| (b) The Teaching of the Africa Inland Mission                             | 159     |
| (c) The Resurrection of Jesus Christ                                      | 161     |
| (d) Corporate Resurrection                                                | 164     |
| VII. CONCLUSION                                                       | 182 |
| SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY                                                   | 192 |
| INDEX OF AUTHORS                                                      | 201 |
| INDEX OF SUBJECTS                                                     | 204 |
| INDEX OF BIBLICAL AND OTHER REFERENCES                                | 206 |