

CONTENTS

List of Acronyms and Abbreviations	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Preface Salvino Busuttil and Katsuhiko Yazaki	xi
Introduction Emmanuel Agius and Tae-Chang Kim	xiii
Part 1: Philosophical Reflections
1. Obligations of Justice Towards Future Generations: A Revolution in Social and Legal Thought Emmanuel Agius	3
2. Beyond Parfit's Paradox Per Ariansen	13
Part 2: State Responsibilities Towards Future Generations
3. The Responsibility of the State Towards Future Generations Rachid Driss	21
4. A Guardian as Monitor of Sustainability of Marine Living Resources Sidney Holt	27
Part 3: Future Generations as a Subject of International Law
5. A Commentary on the Status of Future Generations as a Subject of International Law Ajai Malhotra	39
6. Speaking Without a Voice Boldizsar Nagy	51
7. Safeguarding Future Generations Christopher D. Stone	65
Part 4: Practical Legal Consequences of Future Generation Provisions in Existing Treaties
8. Protecting Future Generations: Precedents and Practicalities Philippe Sands	83

9. Precautionary Principle and Future Generations James Cameron, Will Wade-Gery and Juli Abouchar	93
Part 5: Relevance of Rio Declaration, Agenda 21 and the United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development to a Guardian
10. The Relevance of UNCED to a Guardian for Future Generations Kevin Aquilina	117
11. Guarding Intergenerational Rights Over Natural Resources Simone Borg	127
12. The United Nations as a Guardian for Future Generations Geping Rao	143
13. Future Generations: Searching for a System of Protection R St J Macdonald	149
Part 6: Draft Instrument
14. A Draft Instrument Concerning the Role of a Guardian Maxwell Bruce	163
Appendix: International Legal Materials Referring to Future Generations	167
Notes and References	177
Index	199