

CONTENTS

	Map	6/7
	Introduction	9
Chapter 1	Europe and the Near East	13
	The Basilical Plan 13; Near-Eastern Influences 15; The Use of Stone 18; Armenia 21; The Cruciform Plan 22; The Near East and the Roman World 25; The Monasteries 28; The Moslem World 29; Western Europe 30; The Eve of the Romanesque 33; The Romanesque 34
Chapter 2	Architecture	38
	The Fourth Century 39; The Fifth Century 44; Syria 48; The Sixth Century 53; The Seventh Century 60; The Eighth Century 63; The Ninth Century 67; The Tenth Century 71; The Eleventh and Twelfth Centuries 73
	Map	76
	(Colour Plates I–XVI after page 88)
Chapter 3	Two-dimensional Art: Frescoes, Mosaics, Illuminated Manuscripts and Textiles	89
	The Development of Christian Iconography 89; Egyptian Biblical Illustrations 96; Dura Europos Murals 97; Fifth to Sixth Century Illuminated Manuscripts 99; Missionaries 102; Irish Insular Art 103; Carolingian Art 109; Ottonian Art 115; Influences from Spain 117
Chapter 4	Sculpture: Fourth to Twelfth Centuries	119
	The Rôle of Ivories 122; The Doors of Santa Sabina 125; The Rôle of Ravenna 127; The Development of Liturgy and Missionary Activity 128; The Ruthwell Cross 130; The Jouarre Sarcophagi 131; Poitiers 133; Lombard Art 136; The Carolingian Period 142; Armenian Sculpture 144; The Sources of Romanesque Sculpture 146; The Sculptural Treatment of Capitals 152; The Sculptural Programmes of Cluny, Moissac, Souillac, Autun and Vézelay 156
	Select Bibliography	167
	Index	169