

Table of contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | VII |
| Introduction | IX |
| PART 1. General perspectives and issues on language origins | |
| Historical, Darwinian, and current perspectives on the origin(s) of language Henri Cohen | 3 |
| The origin of language as seen by eighteenth-century philosophy Sylvain Auroux | 31 |
| Cognitive and social aspects of language origins Alan Barnard | 53 |
| PART 2. At the roots of language | |
| Reconstructed fossil vocal tracts and the production of speech: Phylogenetic and ontogenetic considerations Louis-Jean Boë, Jean Granat, Jean-Louis Heim, Pierre Badin, Guillaume Barbier, Guillaume Captier, Antoine Serrurier, Pascal Perrier, Nicolas Kielwasser & Jean-Luc Schwartz | 75 |
| Paleoanthropology and language Ian Tattersall | 129 |
| Material culture and language Benoît Dubreuil & Christopher Stuart Henshilwood | 147 |
| Gestural theory of the origins of language Michael C. Corballis | 171 |
| PART 3. Communication and language origins | |
| Primate communication Klaus Zuberbühler | 187 |
| FoxP2 and vocalization Stephanie A. White | 211 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Brain lateralization and the emergence of language Nathalie Tzourio-Mazoyer & Cyril Courtin | 237 |
| Sensorimotor constraints and the organization of sound patterns Lucie Ménéard | 257 |
| Symbol grounding and the origin of language: From show to tell Alexandre Blondin Massé, Stevan Harnad, Olivier Picard & Bernard St-Louis | 279 |
| PART 4. Linguistic views on language origins | |
| Sound patterns and conceptual content of the first words Peter F. MacNeilage | 301 |
| Brave new words Pierre J. Bancel & Alain Matthey de l'Étang | 333 |
| On the origin of Grammar Bernd Heine, Gunther Kaltenböck & Tania Kuteva | 379 |
| Arbitrary signs and the emergence of language Denis Bouchard | 407 |
| On the relevance of pidgins and creoles in the debate on the origins of language Claire Lefebvre | 441 |
| PART 5. Computational modeling of language origins | |
| Modeling cultural evolution: Language acquisition as multiple-cue integration Morten H. Christiansen | 487 |
| How language emerges in situated embodied interactions Luc Steels | 505 |
| Emergence of communication and language in evolving robots Stefano Nolfi | 533 |
| Evolving a bridge from praxis to language Michael A. Arbib | 555 |
| Index | 579 |