

Contents

PREFACE	ix
ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS	xiii
1. Introduction: Why Look to Europe for Lessons?	1
R. DANIEL KELEMEN
Why Europe? Why Now?	2
American Exceptionalism?	5
A Roadmap for Lesson Drawing	8
Conclusion	12
2. Gender, Employment, and Parenthood: The Consequences of Work–Family Policies	17
JANET C. GORNICK AND ARIANE HEGEWISCH
Policymaking in the European Union on Gender and Work–Family Reconciliation	19
Diverse Practices: Work–Family Reconciliation Supports in Europe and the United States	21
Policy Impacts: Preliminary Lessons from Europe	29
Conclusion	36
3. The Role of Regulation in Health Care Policy	43
LAWRENCE D. BROWN
Regulating Health Care	44
Funding	45
Governance of Coverage	46
Contents of Coverage	48
(Re)distribution of Funds	50
Provider Compensation	52
Supply-Side Governance	53
Health Care Reform and Lessons From Europe	54
Conclusion	56

4. Pensions: Who Is Learning from Whom?	59
MITCHELL A. ORENSTEIN
A Reversal of Direction	60
Lessons from the United States for Europe	62
Convergence of the Welfare Worlds	66
Impact of the Global Financial Crisis	67
Lessons from Europe for the United States	69
Conclusion	74
5. Labor Market Policy: Toward a “Flexicurity” Model in the United States?	77
TOBIAS SCHULZE-CLEVEN
Labor Market Policies for the Global Era	80
The Pathologies of American Labor Policy	82
Toward Labor Market Utopia? The Danish Case	85
Policy Change Through Layering—The German Case	87
Toward Institutional Innovation in the United States? A Strategy for Reform	89
Conclusion	92
6. Immigration Policy: A Transatlantic Comparison	97
MARTIN A. SCHAIN
Entry Policy	97
Integration Policy and Integration Success and Failure	101
Border Enforcement	109
Conclusion	114
7. Climate Change Policy: Progress and Persistence	119
FRANK J. CONVERY
Keys to Success in Europe	122
Constraints Facing European Climate Change Policy	127
Lessons for the United States?	130
Conclusion	134
8. Urban Transport: Promoting Sustainability in Germany	139
RALPH BUEHLER AND JOHN PUCHER
Car Ownership and Use in North America and Western Europe	140
Sustainability of Transport Systems in Germany and the United States	143
Federal Policies in Germany	146
Lessons From Germany	158
Conclusion	160
9. Political Democracy: Consensus Building Through Democracy in Europe	163
STEVEN HILL
European Democracy’s Slow and Patient Rise	164
Representative Democracy, Version 2.0	166

Winner-Take-All Elections Make Everyone a Loser	167
Democracy, European-Style	171
Impact of Europe's Democracy on Policy: Consensus Versus Exclusion	174
The Infrastructure of Political Communication	175
Civic Literacy: Making Democracy Work	178
Challenges to European Democracy	178
Conclusion	181
 10. Transatlantic Lesson Drawing: Utopia, Road to Ruin, or Source of Practical Advice?	 187
R. KENT WEAVER
Multiple European Sources of Lessons	188
Types of Lessons	188
Lesson Drawing How and by Whom? The US Policymaking Process	190
Subnational Lesson Drawing	199
Potential Pitfalls in Policy Implementation and Sustainability	204
Strategic Lessons for Promoting Policy Change	206
 INDEX	 211