Contents

Notes on Contributors vii

1 Introduction 1
   G V C Naidu and Kazuhiko Togo
   I East Asia: Geopolitical and Historical Context

2 In the Crossfire: Vietnam and Great Powers in the Emerging East Asian Security Architecture 13
   Pham Quang Minh

3 The Paradox of Economic Integration and Territorial Rivalry in the South China Sea 27
   Liu Ming

4 Managing Wider National Identity Gaps in East Asia Without Idealism 44
   Gilbert Rozman

5 Beyond Power, Interests, and Identity: In Search of “Asian Thinking” to Build Trust in East Asia 58
   Kazuhiko Togo
II Maritime Security: Crisis Management and Acceptable Solution

6 The Maritime Security Environment in East Asia: The Need for Strengthening Maritime Regimes, Greater Cooperation, and Dialogues
Tran Viet Thai and G V C Naidu 74

Seigo Iwamoto and Kazuhiko Togo 87

8 Toward an Acceptable Solution to the East Sea Dispute
Tran Van Doan 103

III Interdependence: Effect and Limitation

9 Can Economic Interdependence and Cooperation Mitigate Security Concerns in East Asia?
G V C Naidu 115

10 Antagonism Despite Interdependency: Whither China–Japan Relations?
Lam Peng Er 132

11 Conclusion
G V C Naidu and Kazuhiko Togo 147

Index 152