

Contents

Illustrations	xii
Introduction: Legalized Plagiarism and the Rewards of Adaptation	i
1. Places	17
2. People	36
3. Gender Matters in Comedy	64
4. Eros in Tragedy	85
5. Power Plays – Politics in the Shakespeare Films	111
6. Beyond Shakespeare	128
'Please Rewind'	159
Filmography	161
Notes	166
Further Reading	177
Index	183

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1.1. Henry V (Laurence Olivier, 1944): the French court – the King (Harcourt Williams) and the Dauphin (Max Adrian, to his left) receive Henry’s message from Exeter (Nicholas Hannen, second from left) (screen capture) | 23 |
| 2.1. Macbeth (Orson Welles, 1949): Macbeth (Welles) and Lady Macbeth (Jeanete Nolan, behind and to his left) in the banquet scene (screen capture) | 37 |
| 2.2. The Tempest (Derek Jarman, 1979): Elizabeth Welch sings ‘Stormy Weather’ (screen capture) | 60 |
| 3.1. A Midsummer Night’s Dream (Michael Hoffmann, 1999): Bottom (Kevin Kline) shows off his talents in the piazza (screen capture) | 78 |
| 4.1. Romeo and Juliet (Franco Zeffirelli, 1968): Romeo (Leonard Whiting) is confronted by Tybalt (Michael York) and the Capulets (screen capture) | 88 |
| 4.2. Hamlet (Laurence Olivier, 1948): the Queen (Eileen Herlie) entreats Hamlet to stay in Elsinore, while the King (Basil Sydney) looks on – she is about to give her son a lingering kiss on the mouth (screen capture) | 93 |
| 4.3. Julius Caesar (Joseph L. Mankeiwicz, 1953): Caesar (Louis Calhern) tells Antony (Marlon Brando) to touch Calphurnia (Greer Garson) during the race (screen capture) | 98 |
| 5.1. Hamlet (Michael Almereyda, 2000): Hamlet (Ethan Hawke) soliloquizes in the video store (screen capture) | 114 |
| 5.2. ‘Warriors for the working day’: Henry V addresses his troops before Agincourt (Kenneth Branagh, 1988) (screen capture) | 120 |
| 6.1. My Own Private Idaho (Gus Van Sant, 1991): Bob Pigeon (William Richert) and Scott Favor (Keanu Reeves) the morning after the abortive robbery (screen capture) | 139 |
| 6.2. Another brave new world: Altaira learns how to kiss (Fred M. Wilcox, Forbidden Planet , 1956) (screen capture) | 144 |