

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii

Acknowledgments ix

About the Contributors xi

PART ONE: Singing the Dance, Dancing the Song 1

1. The Song's the Thing: Capturing the "Song" to Make It "Song" 9

Dominic Symonds

2. The (Un)Pleasure of Song: On the Enjoyment of Listening to Opera 22

Carlo Zuccarini

PART TWO: Performativity as Dramaturgy 37

3. Relocating the Song: Julie Taymor's Jukebox Musical, Across the Universe (2007) 41

George Rodosthenous

4. Dynamic Shape: The Dramaturgy of Song and Dance in Lloyd Webber's Cats 54

Ben Macpherson

PART THREE: Performativity as Transition 71

5. Dance Breaks and Dream Ballets: Transitional Moments in Musical Theater 75

Mary Jo Lodge

6. "Love, Let Me Sing You": The Liminality of Song and Dance in LaChiusa's Bernarda Alba (2006) 91

Matthew Lockitt

PART FOUR: Performativity as Identity 109

7. Tapping the Ivories: Jazz and Tap Dance in Jelly's Last Jam (1992). 113

Kathryn Edney

8. "Everything's Coming up Kurt": The Broadway Song in Glee 128

Jessica Sternfeld

9. Angry Dance: Postmodern Innovation, Masculinities, and Gender Subversion 146

Judith A. Sebesta

PART FIVE: Performativity as Context	161
10. Deconstructing the Singer: The Concerts of Laurie Anderson	165
Ainhoa Kaiero Claver
11. Singing and a Song: The “Intimate Difference” in Susan Philipsz’s Lowlands (2010)	178
Zeynep Bulut
12. Acting Operatically: Body, Voice, and the Actress in Beckett’s Theater	191
Marianne Sharp
PART SIX: Performativity as Practice	209
13. Vox Elettronica: Song, Dance, and Live Electronics in the Practice of Sound Theater	213
Caroline Wilkins
14. From Ear to Foot: How Choreographers Interpret Music	226
Sabine Wilden
15. Singing from Stones: Physiovocality and Gardzienice’s Theater of Musicality	242
Konstantinos Thomaidis
PART SEVEN: Performativity as Community	259
16. Singing the Community: The Musical Theater Chorus as Character	263
Bethany Hughes
17. Singing and Dancing Ourselves: The Politics of the Ensemble in A Chorus Line (1975)	276
Millie Taylor
EPILOGUE: Performativity as Writing	293
Bibliography	299
Index	315