

Contents

Introduction	page 11
PART I: FROM THE CLASSICS TO ENGLISH LITERATURE: THE FIRST HOPES
1 The Curriculum Debate	17
2 Essays on a Liberal Education	29
3 Matthew Arnold	37
4 Literature and the Threats from Commerce	48
5 Progressive Theories and Creativity	56
6 The Newbolt Report and English for the English	69
PART II: CHANGING DEFINITIONS OF ENGLISH SINCE THE FIRST WORLD WAR
7 Anti-Industrialism: The Claims for Literature and Creativity	85
8 Progressive Theories since the 1920s	106
9 F. R. Leavis and Cambridge English	122
10 Socio-Linguistics: English and Social Justice	143
11 Changing Views of the 'Good' English Teacher	162
PART III: THE IDEOLOGY AND THE TEACHERS
12 Social and Academic Background of Teachers	175
13 The English Teacher's Role: Strain and Conflict	193
14 Interest and Enjoyment: Teachers and Pupils	213
Index	226