

Contents of the Fifth Volume.

|                                                                                                                             |       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| A LETTER to the Publisher, occasioned by theFirst Edition of the DUNCIAD                                                | iii   |
| MARTINUS SCRIBLERUS's Prolegomena and Il-lustrations to the DUNCIAD, with the Hyper-critics of ARISTARCHUS | xvii  |
| BOOK I.                                                                                                                     | 65    |
| BOOK II.                                                                                                                    | 119   |
| BOOK III.                                                                                                                   | 176   |
| BOOK IV.                                                                                                                    | 225   |
| APPENDIX                                                                                                                    | 305   |
| I. A Preface prefixed to the five first imper-fect editions of the DUNCIAD                                      | 305   |
| II. A list of books, papers, and verses, in whichour author was abused                                          | 309   |
| III. Advertisement to the first edition withNOTES, in quarto                                                    | 314   |
| IV. Advertisement to the First edition of theFOURTH BOOK when printed separately                                | 315   |
| V. Advertisement to the complete edition of1743.                                                                | 316   |
| VI. Advertisement printed in the Journal1730                                                                    | 317   |
| VII. A parallel of the characters of Mr. DRY-DEN and Mr. POPE.                                                  | 318   |
| VOL. V.                                                                                                                     | a     |
|                                                                                                                             | T H E |