

Contents

Introduction 7

PART I QUADRATURA — THE ANALYSIS OF A GENRE 11

- 1 Quadratura and Illusionistic Mural Painting 11
The term quadratura (11), Illusionism, trompe-l'oeil, degrees of reality (12), The beholder's share (13), Fictive structure and quadratura (14).
- 2 Quadratura in Ceiling Painting 16
Pre-conditions (16), Special types of illusionistic ceiling painting (17), The perspective pictorial room (19), Perspective in ceiling painting (21), Figures and quadratura (23).

PART II QUADRATURA IN ITALIAN CEILING PAINTING: DEVELOPMENTS IN THEORY AND PRACTICE 26

- 3 The Period 1450–1550: Preparations and Presages 26
Renaissance theory and practice (26), Figure foreshortening (27), North Italian experiments (29), Roman innovations (32), Inventions in Parma, Mantua, Venice (34).
- 4 The Period 1550–1600: A Developed Speciality 37
Venetia (37), Vasari (40), Emilia: Vignola and his circle (41), Codex Huygens, Lomazzo and Armenini on figure drawing (45), Hans Vredeman de Vries (47).
- 5 The Period 1600–1650: Classical Quadratura 48
Quadratura in Rome (48), Accolti and Viola Zanini (51), Climax in Bologna: Curti, Mitelli and Colonna (53), Pietro da Cortona (55).
- 6 The Period 1650–1700: Decorative and Perspective Virtuosity 56
Expansion (56), Bologna: routine and renewal (57), Giulio Troili and other hand-book writers (59), Pozzo and the perspective doctrines of the Late Baroque (59), Excursus: Perspective debate in France (60), Andrea Pozzo (62).
- 7 The 18th Century: Barocchetto and Neo-classicism 68
From seicento to settecento (68), Finale in Bologna (69), Giambattista Tiepolo (74), Neo-classicism and the dissolution of quadratura painting (78).

PART III SUMMARY

The formal development of the quadratura motif (80), The perspective literature (82), Perspective construction and its problems (84), Figures and quadratura (86), The training, working methods and status of the quadratura painter (88).

Notes 91

Bibliography 104

Plates 111