

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xii
Preface	xiii
Introduction
Performing Beyond Pre-formations and Between Movements: Thirty Years of African-American Performance Annemarie Bean	1
Part I: Theatrical In(ter)ventions of the Black Arts Movement
1 Black Theatre 1998: A Thirty-Year Look at Black Arts Theatre (1998) Ed Bullins	9
2 Clara's Ole Man (1968) Ed Bullins	13
3 Home on the Range and Police (1968) Amiri Baraka (LeRoi Jones)	32
4 The Bronx is Next (1968) Sonia Sanchez	46
5 The Black Arts Movement (1968) Larry Neal	55
6 Ritual Reformulations: Barbara Ann Teer and the National Black Theatre of Harlem (1998) Barbara Lewis	68
7 To Make Black Bodies Strange: Social Critique in Concert Dance of the Black Arts Movement (1998) Thomas DeFrantz	83
Part II: Free Southern Theater and Community Activism
8 A Road Through the Wilderness (1998) John O'Neal	97
9 Dialog: The Free Southern Theater (1965) Gilbert Moses, John O'Neal, Denise Nicholas, Murray Levy and Richard Schechner	102
10 Motion in the Ocean: Some Political Dimensions of the Free Southern Theater (1968) John O'Neal	114
11 After the Free Southern Theater: A Dialog (1987) Tom Dent and Jerry W. Ward, Jr.	121

12	John O'Neal, Actor and Activist: The Praxis of Storytelling (1992)	128
	Kate Hammer
Part III: Moving Beyond the Center
13	Rode a Railroad That Had No Track (1998)	147
	Glenda Dicker/sun
14	Theatre in Historically Black Colleges: A Survey of 100 Years (1998)	150
	James V. Hatch
15	Stepping, Saluting, Cracking, and Freaking: The Cultural Politics of African-American Step Shows (1991)	165
	Elizabeth C. Fine
16	The Gospel Musical and Its Place in the Black American Theatre (1998)	190
	Warren B. Burdine, Jr.
17	Catalysis: An Interview with Adrian Piper (1972)	204
	Lucy Lippard
Part IV: Contemporary Challenges to Representations: African-American Women Playwrights
18	Four Bad Sisters (1998)	211
	Eugene Nesmith
19	A Growth of Images (1977)	216
	Adrienne Kennedy
20	Obsessing in Public: An Interview with Robbie McCauley (1993)	219
	Vicki Patra
21	Sally's Rape (1994)	246
	Robbie McCauley
22	Anna Deavere Smith: Acting as Incorporation (1993)	265
	Richard Schechner
23	The Word Becomes You: An Interview with Anna Deavere Smith (1993)	267
	Carol Martin
24	Doo-a-diddly-dit-dit: An Interview with Suzan-Lori Parks and Liz Diamond (1995)	284
	Steven Drukman
25	The America Play (1994)	307
	Suzan-Lori Parks
	Index	349

ILLUSTRATIONS

Plates

- 1 Class session of Group Theatre Workshop in the 1960s 71
- 2 Esther Pulliam and Conrad Neblett in The Legacy by Gordon Nelson, 1989–90 season of NBT 75
- 3 Elmo Terry Morgan's play Song of Sheba, 1989–90 season of NBT 79
- 4 Kerry Ruff and Doreen Whitten in Power Play by Lorey Hayes, 1989–90 season of NBT 80
- 5 Scene from Mary Rose, Atlanta Theatre Company, 1940 152
- 6 Hazel Washington and Dorothy Ateca in Mamba's Daughters by Dorothy and DuBose Heyward, Atlanta Theatre Company, 1940 157
- 7 J.B. Priestley's Time and the Conways performed by the Howard University Players, 1941 159
- 8 Delta Sigma Theta of VPI&SU in a stance typical of the step shows 166
- 9 Delta Sigma Theta sisters show their unity and their icon, the pyramid 167
- 10 Noted for their dexterous use of canes and priding themselves on a suave, debonair image, Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity at East Tennessee State University 168
- 11 Step shows sometimes include dramatic acrobatics, as demonstrated here by the brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha (VPI&SU, 1990) 170
- 12 The sisters of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority "giving skin" in a synchronized handclap routine (VPI&SU, 1986) 172
- 13 An Alpha Phi Alpha brother "freaks" or "show dogs" by breaking from the group formation 176
- 14 An Alpha Phi Alpha brother cracks on the Kappas' sweet-talking image 178