

CONTENTS

Introduction	vii
PART ONE. SEEING OLD ART WITH NEW EYES
1. The History of the Unicorn Tapestries	3
2. France in Transition: A Perspective of the Period	15
3. The Fusion of Classical and Christian Gods	26
4. Iconography and Its Meaning	40
5. Myths of Death and Resurrection: The Oak King, the Holly King, the Wild Man, and Christ	58
PART TWO. THE UNICORN TAPESTRIES
An Unfolding Drama of the Seasons	81
I. The Start of the Hunt	87
II. The Unicorn at the Fountain	97
III. The Unicorn Crossing the Stream	121
IV. The Unicorn Defends Himself	141
V. The Unicorn Is Tamed by the Maiden	161
VI. The Unicorn Is Killed and Brought to the Castle	175
VII. The Unicorn in Captivity	199

Conclusion	227
Diagrams Identifying the Flora of the Unicorn Tapestries	230
Selected Bibliography	241
Index	253

Color plates of the Unicorn Tapestries follow page 116.