

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
Part 1 Functional Perspectives	17
1 Representation	19
1 Introduction	19
2 Systemic Functional Grammar	19
3 Transitivity analysis	22
4 Mystification analysis	30
5 Social actor analysis	33
6 Issues in Critical Linguistics	37
7 Conclusion	41
2 Evaluation	43
1 Introduction	43
2 Appraisal Theory and SFG	44
3 Appraisal in corporate social reports	46
4 Appraisal in George W. Bush's justification for war	59
5 Covert evaluation in media discourse on immigration	65
6 Conclusion	69
3 Visuation	71
1 Introduction	71
2 Multimodality and SFG	72
3 Actors, actions and visual implicatures: images of immigrants	76
4 Vectors, viewpoints and viewing frames in pictures of protests	81
5 Visual metaphor and intertextuality in the British Miners' Strike	97
6 Conclusion	102

Part 2 Cognitive Perspectives	105
4 Event-Structure and Spatial Point of View	107
1 Introduction	107
2 The cognitive perspective	108
3 Schematization in press reports of political protests	112
4 Spatial point of view in press reports of political protests	123
5 Conclusion	135
5 Metaphor	137
1 Introduction	137
2 Conceptual metaphor, blending and ideology	138
3 Metaphor and grammar	143
4 Metaphor and the London Riots	145
5 Metaphor in David Cameron's austerity discourse	151
6 Conclusion	160
6 Deixis, Distance and Proximization	163
1 Introduction	163
2 Discourse Space Theory	164
3 Proximization in Tony Blair's justification for action in Iraq	167
4 Proximization in the Mission Statement of the English Defence League	183
5 Conclusion	185
Afterword	187
Notes	191
Bibliography	203
Index	215