

Contents

Preface to the 8th Edition	ix
Preface to the 1st Edition	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
Arrangement within Entries	xix
Dating	xxi
Bibliographical Abbreviations	xxiii
Abbreviations and Signs	xxix

THE DICTIONARY 1

Appendix 1373

Evolution of the phonetic alphabet—Army slang in the South African War—Association football—Australian surfing slang—Australian underworld terms current in 1975—Back slang—Bird-watchers' slang—Body—Canadian adolescents' slang—Charterhouse—Chow-chow—Clergymen's diction in the Church of England—Cockney catch-phrases—Cockney speech—Colston's—Constables—Crown and Anchor—To die—Drinks, Drunkenness—Drop a brick—Drugs—Dupes—Echoism in slang—Ejaculations—Epithets and adverbial phrases—Eton—Euphemisms—Felsted—Food—Fools' errands—Fops and gallants—Grafters' and market-traders' slang—Gremlins—Guard-room—Harlots—Harrow—Harry—Hauliers' slang—Hooligan—Imperial Service College—Initials for names—Interpolation—ITMA—Jazz terms—Jive and swing—Kibosh—Kilroy was here—King's Own Schneiders—Know—Korean War slang—Long time no see!—Loo—Lovers' acronyms—Mah-Jong—Mans—Men—Miscellanea—Mock auction slang—Money—Moving-picture slang—Nicknames—O.K.—Occupational names—Ocker—'Oxford -er(s)'—Paint the town red—Parlyaree—Pie in the sky—Pip-squeak—Prisoner-of-war slang—Public and Grammar School slang in 1968—Railwaymen's slang and nicknames—Regional names—Rhodesian Army slang current in 1976—'Rhubarb'—Rogues and beggars in C. 18—Shelta—Shortenings—Spanglish—Stonyhurst—Strine—Surnames, truncated—Swahili—Tavern terms in C. 17—Tiddlywinks—Tombola—Two-up—Verbs in C. 18 slang—War slang, 1939–45—Westminster—Winchester—Women in C. 18 slang